Atlantean Names

The great legacy of the life's work of trance medium Edgar Cayce continues to inspire readers with spiritual wisdom that remains unparalleled in the domain of psychic material. One subject presented by Cayce that has not received consideration by modern linguists is the great variety and meaning of names given for individuals with past lives during the height of the Atlantean Era ~29,900 years ago.

The surprising wealth of votive aspirations and psychoacoustic cultural meanings conveyed among the hundreds of Atlantean names given by Cayce can only be understood in the context of the advanced biorhythmic waterbirthing and plasma rejuvenation functions of the Orion Pyramids. Special references to high Atlantean sciences practiced at Giza are revealed here, for the first time, expressed as votive names of those Atlanteans born in the waterbirthing chambers of the Great Pyramid long ago.

Among the large Atlantean group that occupied and reconstructed the Orion Pyramids of present-day Giza, Egypt during that exalted period, parents gave Paleo-Sanskrit<sup>3</sup> spiritual names to their children by engaging in the playful votive game of naming the unnamable, of identifying the unidentifiable. Votive names referenced the Divine Creator by a great many terms relating to the complex Vedic cosmological system of knowledge that elevated the creative reverberatory force of cosmic infrasound as "the One", extolling the amplification of that force by Sun and Jupiter, often referred to together as "the Two".

For this reason, both singular and plural denominations are used to signify the Divine, honored in a spectacular variety of contexts as: "the One", "the Only", "the Giver", "the Maker", "the unutterable", "the unspeakable", "the endless", "the emptiness", "the absence", "the void", "Yours", "That", "This", "Him", "the Two", "These", "Those", "Them", "Theirs", etc...

Sophisticated Atlantean temple practices induced cellular regeneration and genetic purification through the focusing of creative forces, inducing the ignition of airborne water vapor within piezoelectric geopolymer stone chambers. <sup>4</sup> This purificatory burning process, defined today as HHO plasma regeneration, inspired curious names such as 'Aidol', meaning "ah, going aflame, burning"; 'Bel-elduen', meaning "activating (of the) Divine, being burnt (by) That"; 'Sumudui' meaning "(the) good Mu, being burnt (by) This"; and 'Tul-mep-on' meaning "protection (of the) burning, bleating inner joy (of) assent".

Regional names during the Atlantean Era reflect the same unusual concept, such as 'Poseida', meaning "reverberating submission (to) going aflame, ah"; and 'Saneid', meaning "bestowing, going aflame". Also expressed in Atlantean regional names are references to the sacred syllable Mu, Aum, Aom, Om, or Ohm, as in the name for the region presently known as the Pacific, once called 'Lemuria', meaning "beholding Mu song, ah". The Andean peoples of present-day South America were named the 'Ohum'. Several names of Atlantean individuals given in Life Readings by Cayce also include the sacred syllable, such as 'Is-it-ao', meaning "waning child (of) Ao(m)"; and 'Aiaoel', meaning "aye, Ao(m) (of the) Divine".

The modern word 'Atlantic' is derived from Paleo-Sanskrit name 'Atlantis', meaning "pervading luminous rays", which refers to the glow of all living matter generated by resonant atomic transmutation reactions taking place within every living cell, and enhanced through bioelectrification within pyramid chambers.<sup>5</sup>

Focal points of planetary infrasound standing waves were precisely defined by the quadratic mandala formula  $[z_{n+1} = z_n^2]^6$  and referred to as a Divine "locus" or "axis" in names such as 'Ax-tenuel' meaning "axis in That locus, oh, (of the) Divine" and 'Ax-tell' meaning "axis (of the) intellect (of the) essence". Global measurement of resonant locations using Fibonacci numbers is referenced –'Ax-etz-en', meaning "axis (of the) measurement (of) That"; and 'Ah-pet-et' meaning "calling (of the) ancestral measuring".

The sanctity of life-giving water inspired names such as 'Ashal', meaning "for water"; and 'Asha-ahal' meaning "for Those, ah, water". Condensation of dense fog induced by high-intensity infrasound resonance in the atmosphere is also referenced by many Atlantean names; 'Ai-od', meaning "aye, (the) moistening"; and 'Apt-stu-ste' meaning "ah, arrival (of the) blessing (of) moisture". Taken in their proper technological context, these votive names attest to the uplifting spiritual views of Atlanean society:
