Master Aarioc

Many authors have addressed the religious subject of Bible analysis and interpretation, yet there are five high-level sources that provide definitive clarifications concerning the life, teachings and works of 'Jesus': Edgar Cayce's psychic readings, the Cassiopaeon Transmissions (1994-2021) by Laura Knight-Jadczyk, 'The Essene Gospel of Peace - Books 1-4' (1975) by Edmond Székely, 'The Talmud of Jmmanuel' (2010) by Judas Ischariot and Eduard Meier, and 'Thiaoouba Prophecy' (1993) authored by Michel Desmarquet.

Cross-referencing information from these high-level sources reveals two distinct interplanetary missions of a spiritual character were undertaken by ETs from other worlds; acts of advanced technological societies who voluntarily accept the supreme civic responsibilities involving full oversight of human development on Earth.

The Biblical significance of the January 28, 2011 UFO event above the Temple Mount in Jerusalem¹ cannot be understated. A disc-shaped object appeared over Al-Aqsa Mosque's golden dome, descending to a stationary position ~60' above. After several seconds, the glowing craft emitted a high-intensity burst of UVA light, replicating the 'resurrection' event that scorched the burial shroud of Jesus, now kept in Turin, Italy.

Al-Aqsa Mosque at Mount Moriah, Jerusalem (31.7779715°N, 35.2350439°E, opposite) is located 274 miles from the Great Pyramid of present-day Giza, Egypt. This resonant distance interval corresponds to 1.10% of Earth's mean circumference ($1^1/_{1000}$); a nodal point in the nonlinear field of planetary infrasound resonance.

A large underground Paleo-Sanskrit temple complex remains hidden below Mount Moriah, linked by tunnel systems of the First Temple to the site of Roman capitol punishments, including stakings and crucifixions. Extensive archeological excavation of these tunnel systems were initiated in the 1970s by the inspired American researcher Ronald Wyatt (1933-1999), revealing the actual crucifixion site of Jesus of Nazareth.²

At various times in my life, I have noticed the surprise of passing pedestrians that seem to make note of my likeness to the religious icon 'Jesus' —often times when wearing white clothing in any Latin American country. Living in La Maná, Ecuador while researching the Ohum Pyramids (2010-2019), I experienced a wide range of reactions from local residents both in town and in the mountains above the small community of La Envidia.

Standing a head and shoulders taller than the average person draws attention, to which I am accustomed. Yet several times when wearing white, regardless of whether my beard was full or trimmed, I drew the genuine surprise of religious people who saw my likeness to actor Robert Powell, from 'Jesus of Nazareth' (1977), resembling the facial features of a crucified man scorched on the burial shroud (compared above).

Such occurrences were dismissed in good humor –as cases of mistaken identity experienced by anyone resembling an American movie star traveling abroad. More unusual were my many nighttime sightings of glowing UFOs at low altitude while visiting ancient sites in both California and Ecuador,³ giving me the strong impression many ET groups were monitoring my Unity Field research.⁴ All this unusual activity felt somehow related to future events and ET contact, inspiring a March 19, 2009 Aura Reading by psychic Laura Peppard:

My overall impression here, is of some group of beings that are, kind of, present here for some reason or another, and they're not letting themselves be known, evidently... and you kind of work for them, you know. Are you aware of that yourself, or...? Alex: Yes...

Have you had, like, uh... any alien type experiences? A: No physical interactions [that I am aware of], only through consciousness.

Normally, at this point, I would look on the stem for past lives that are affecting you at the present time, and there's a white, very fuzzy area there at the top of the stem. When I look at that it feels like, um, I don't know, it's like this "spaceship landing" kind of thing... Now I definitely see a being over here [beside you]. It's kind of a golden mustard color, and it's, like, reaching its arms around you, to draw you to it, or enfold you in itself... kind of like you're a prize or something...

The [first] chakra actually has some of that gold color in it too, like this being [enfolding you in its arms]... My take on that would be, that whoever this is, that being is running your body, or, um, like you're not having to worry about survival because it's somehow feeding this energy into you... you know, a sense of that. And so there's no grounding too, because of that. So... normally that chakra would go off into a grounding cord where you would connect with the planet. It's almost like you're on the planet, but not of the planet. Kind of, like, hovering above it...

Now the third chakra, that's in the solar plexus, that's about creating in the physical world, about how you run your energy... [After some hesitation:] Well, you just want me to be honest about what I see, right? It's like a machine or a black box behind the chakra, and on this side of it... When I look at that black box, what I see are like, um, clones. Maybe not exactly like you, but definitely like you... or, you know –clone is my conclusion, but what I'm seeing is like, little figures coming out this box, as I described. And that is kind of like, you don't have to do something, because in some sense, maybe your genetic [field] –I'm postulating here– is doing something... through some other process than you doing something. Does that make any sense to you at all?

A: I've always had the feeling that something is invisibly going on around me... of importance...

Now I'm getting a picture like this [raises both arms above her head], sort of stylized. So your arms are not employed in doing something in this world. They're golden, and I see them holding... a generator, or something that's arching in a spiral... And it has to do with balancing male and female energy; it's actually arching the connection. It's kind of interesting, because you're completing the circuit in yourself.⁵

Laura Peppard's Aura Reading was full of fascinating connections to contemplate. Most interesting were her strange comments on the replication of DNA 'templates' in my field, which immediately brought to mind information from the Cassiopaeans on hyperconscious states and 'soul replication' on September 30, 1994:

Q: (L) Who was Jesus of Nazareth? A: Advanced spirit.

Q: (L) Was Jesus born from an immaculate conception; that is did his mother not have sex with a man in order to conceive him? A: No. Q: (L) She did have sex with a man in order to conceive him, is that correct? A: Yes.

Q: (L) Who was the man with whom she had sex to conceive Jesus? A: Tonatha.

Q: (L) And who was this individual, Tonatha? A: Acquaintance.

Q: (L) How old was Jesus mother, Mary, when she conceived Jesus? A: 19.

Q: (L) Was Joseph upset to discover that Mary was pregnant? A: No.

Q: (L) How old was Joseph when he married Mary? A: 39. Q: (L) Was Joseph unable to father children?

A: Close. Q: (L) What date, counting backwards in our calendrical system, was Jesus born on? A: 01 06 minus 14.

Q: (L) What time of day was he born? A: 6 am...

Q: (L) What was the star the Magi saw in the East that led them to the place where he was born? Was there an event where the Magi came to present gifts? A: Close.

Q: (L) Who was it that came to present him gifts? A: 3 prophets.

Q: (L) What country did these prophets come from? A: Iran. Also known as Persia...

Q: (L) What was the "star" that indicated to the prophets... A: Spaceship. Q: (L) What kind...? A: Mother.

Q: (L) Where did this mothership come from? A: Other realm.

Q: (L) Does that mean other realm as in dimension or density? A: Yes...

Q: (L) Jesus grew up to the age of twelve, at which point he was Bar Mitzvahed, is that correct?

A: He was Bar Mitzvahed at the age of 10.

Q: (L) Did he at that time receive training elsewhere? A: Aramaic rite.

Q: (L) Did Jesus, during the course of his growing up years travel... and study under other masters? A: No.

Q: (L) Where did he receive his teaching or training? A: Channeled to him.

Q: (L) Did he at any point in his life travel to India? A: No.

Q: (L) Did he travel to Egypt and undergo an initiation in the Great Pyramid? A: No.

Q: (L) He lived his entire life in Palestine? A: Near. In that general area. The Bible is not entirely accurate...

Q: (L) Tell us what Jesus really did. A: He taught spiritual truths to those starving for them.

Q: (L) And what was the basis of these spiritual truths? A: Channeled information from higher sources.

Q: (L) What is the truth that Jesus taught? A: That all men are loved by the Creator and are one with same.

Q: (L) Did he perform miracles? A: Some. Q: (L) Can you tell us about one or two of them? A: Healing.

Q: (L) Was he able to literally heal with the touch of his hand? A: Yes. Q: (L) Did he perform exorcisms? A: Close.

Q: (L) Is Reiki the method he used to heal; or something similar? A: Yes...

Q: (L) What other kinds of miracles did he do? A: Telekinesis. Q: (L) Did he walk on water? A: No.

Q: (L) Did he turn water into wine? A: No. Q: (L) Are these all just stories? A: Yes.

Q: (L) What is the purpose of the stories? A: Control...

Q: (L) Okay, what is the truth on that matter? A: Left earth plane on ship after extended sleep state...

Q: (L) So he appeared to his followers to have died? A: They thought this.

Q: (L) Did he get up and say anything to anybody before he left on the ship? A: Yes.

Q: (L) Did he come back to life... A: Yes.

Q: (L) And then he told them things he had seen in his extended meditative sleep, is that what happened? A: Close.

Q: (L) Okay, what happened? A: Told prophecies then proclaimed eventual return.

Q: (L) Was this information he got during this period of extended sleep? A: Yes.

Q: (L) How long was he asleep, or in this state of semi-death? A: 98 hours.

Q: (L) And then a ship arrived and took him away, is that correct? A: Yes. Upon pillar of light...

Q: (L) Is there any special power or advantage in praying in the name of Jesus? A: Yes... Prayers go to him.

Q: (L) What does he do when he hears prayers?

A: Determines their necessity against background of individual soul development.

Q: (L) You said that when a person prays to Jesus that he makes some sort of a decision...? A: Yes.

Q: (L) Well, how can he do that when millions of people are praying to him simultaneously?

A: Soul division...

Q: (L) How many times does it divide?

A: Endlessly as a projection of consciousness.

Q: (L) And what happens to this piece of soul that is divided or projected? A: Is not a piece of a soul.

Q: (L) What is it? A: It is a replication. Q: (L) Is each replication exactly identical to the original? A: Yes. And no.

Q: (L) In what way is the replicated soul different from the original? A: Not able to give individual attention.

Q: (L) Are any of us able to replicate in this manner if we so desire? A: Could if in same circumstance. The way the process works is thus: When Jesus left the earth plane, he went into another dimension or density of reality, whereupon all "rules" regarding the awareness of time and space are entirely different from the way they are perceived here. At this point in space time his soul which was/is still in the physical realm, was placed in a state of something akin to suspended animation and a sort of advanced form of unconsciousness. From that point to the present his soul has been replicated from a state of this unconsciousness in order that all who call upon him or need to be with him or need to speak to him can do so on an individual basis. His soul can be replicated ad infinitum –as many times as needed. The replication process produces a state of hyper-consciousness in each and every version of the soul consciousness...

Q: (L) The passages attributed to Jesus in Matthew 24 and Luke 21, where Jesus predicts the end of the age and his return, is that fairly accurately rendered? A: Close.

Q: (L) Is Jesus, in fact, in a state of suspension, voluntarily, in another plane of existence, having chosen to give up his life on this plane in order to continuously generate replications of his soul pattern for other people to call upon for assistance? A: Yes.

Surprising information shared through the Cassiopaea channel provides many details concerning the actual person and events recorded in the Bible and other ancient texts. On multiple occasions Laura questioned the authenticity of UFO contacts reported by Billy Meier, with responses from the Cs indicating his genuine early contacts with the Plejaren were replaced in the late 1990s by false projections from the Bafath ET syndicate.

The Cassiopaeans' tacit confirmation of the veracity of early information shared by Meier reinforced prior details regarding Jesus shared with Laura Knight-Jadczyk during a follow-up discussion on October 5, 1994:

Q: (L) I would like more details about the man you say is the biological father of Jesus. Once again, what is his name? A: Tonatha. Q: (L) You said he was an acquaintance of Mary's? A: Yes.

Q: (L) Was he selected for some reason to be the biological father of Jesus by other beings or powers. A: Close.

Q: (L) Can you give us any details about him. What was his lineage, where did he come from, etc.

A: He was a member of the white sect. Q: (L) What is the white sect? A: aka Aryans. Andarans.

Q: (L) Was Mary a member of the Essene group? A: Yes.

Q: (L) Was this man also a member of the Essenes? A: No.

Q: (L) This person, Tonatha, was chosen to be the biological father of Jesus? A: Yes.

Q: (L) Why did Mary not marry him? A: Feelings were extremely transient.

Q: (L) You are saying she was fickle? A: No. Influenced by telepathic suggestion.

Q: (L) Was she already betrothed at this time? A: No. Hypnotized level 1.

These responses from the Cs –indicating use of telepathic suggestion to hypnotize Mary– reveal complex technical activities pertaining to an ET mission of high spiritual purpose; to conceive a celestial child among the community of the Essene Order at Nazareth. Peculiar circumstances predicating the birth of an Aryan Jesus in Aramaia implicate a hidden dimension of the Biblical narrative that contradicts all textual sources.

Further information on this subject was requested and received from the Cs during 3 more sessions –on November 3, '94, January 5, '95 and May 2, '98:

Q: (L) What did Jesus look like? How tall was he?

A: 5'9" Q: (L) What color eyes did he have? A: Blue.

Q: (L) What color hair...? A: Strawberry blond.

Q: (L) What was his skin tone? A: Fair.

Q: (L) What was his weight? A: 160.

Q: (L) Was he muscular? A: Average.

Q: (L) What was Jesus actual name? A: Jesinavarah.

Q: Did Jesus have a wife? A: Yes.

Q: Who was his wife? A: Anatylenia...

Q: What was her background...? A: Nazarene.

Q: Did they have any children? A: Yes... Three.

Q: What was the family name? A: Marnohk.

Unconventional information shared by the Cs suggest two distinct sets of valid information correspond to the actual lives of the Prophet Jmmanuel and the Essene Master Jesinavarah, while the Bible narrative includes many falsehoods designed to confuse the extraordinary lives of these two great spiritual teachers.

Meier's painstaking photographic, acoustic and textual documentation verify every aspect of his spiritual mission, comprising thousands of published pages of contact reports and elevated spiritual teachings generated over decades of focused effort. Meier's works offer concise teachings delineating the timeless Laws of Creation. The unerring consistency of information imparted through Meier's lifelong mission closely matches the teachings of Jmmanuel, yet show no connection to the Essene Order or their Gospel of Peace.

The many unusual details related in the Bible surrounding the 'Immaculate Conception' and birth of Jesus (or 'Immanuel') in Bethlehem correspond to an actual intervention made by Plejaren beamships to facilitate the conception of Jmmanuel. Mary's impregnation by genetic material from the Plejaren ET Gabriel, a highly advanced genetic configuration was inherited by Jmmanuel; as a son of the line of Rasiel.

The village of Nazareth, ~90 miles north of Bethlehem, was the birthplace of a great teacher of the Essenes. Events related to the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus –as well as the marking of the burial shroud with blood and scorches resembling a crucified man– do not pertain to events related in the 'Talmud Jmmanuel'.

Actual teachings and events of the life of Jmmanuel reported by Eduard Meier constitute only a portion of the Bible narrative. A temporal chart of Biblical events pertaining to the life of Jesus has been divided into two sections (overleaf), according to verifiable accounts shared by contactees Meier and Desmarquet. Meier explains that Jmmanuel survived a staking, recovered in a tomb cave and departed eastward in secret.

Chronology of the Life of Jesus

Prophet
Immanuel

2BC - 10AD Childhood Journeys

- 2BC Jesus is born in Judaea (Bethlehem) and is consecrated in the Temple in Jerusalem.
- 1BC Mary, Joseph & Jesus flee from Bethlehem to Egypt, before returning to Galilee.
- 10AD Jesus visits Jerusalem near his 13th birthday.

Essene Master
Jesinavarah
Marnohk

26 - 28AD Journeys Around Galilee

- 26AD Baptised by John at Bethany beyond the Jordan. Tempted by the devil in the Judaeen Desert. Performs his first miracle at Cana in Galilee. Ministers in Nazareth & Capernaum.
- 27AD Visits Jerusalem for the Passover Festival. Jesus's followers baptise in the River Jordan. Travels north to Galilee via Sychar in Samaria. Ministers in Galilee (Cana, Nain, Capernaum & Bethsaida).
- 28AD Ministers in Galilee (from his home in Capernaum). Crosses the Sea of Galilee to Gerasa (Gadara).
- 29AD Feeds 5000 in the territory of Decapolis. Visits Phoenicia (Tyre & Sidon), Dalmanutha & Bethsaida. Peter proclaims Jesus as the Messiah at Caesarea Philippi. Jesus is 'transfigured' at Mount Hermon. He travels via Samaria to Jerusalem for the Feast of Tabernacles & the Festival of Hanukkah.
- 30AD Jesus stays at Bethany beyond the Jordan. He raises Lazarus from the dead at Bethany near Jerusalem, before withdrawing to Ephraim.

30AD Last Journey to Jerusalem

- 30AD Passes through Jericho, Bethany & Bethphage on his last journey to Jerusalem. Enters Jerusalem on a donkey & stays at Bethany. Drives out merchants from the Temple, Jerusalem.

30AD Last Supper, Crucifixion & Resurrection

- 30AD Shares the Passover supper with his followers in Jerusalem. Prays in the Garden of Gethsemane. Tried before Pilate at the Praetorium in Jerusalem. Crucified at Golgotha by the hill of Calvary. Resurrected and appears to followers in Jerusalem, Emmaus & Galilee. Enters into God's presence ('heaven') at the Mount of Olives.

32AD Encounter in Damascus

While the staking of Jmmanuel and the crucifixion of Jesinavarah occurred during the same period ~30 AD, the latter days of the life of the Prophet Jmmanuel have been outlined by Meier according to his extensive research on the subject of his previous Judean life (including time travel visits to witness important events):

With his mother Maria, his brother Thomas and his disciple Judas [Ischariot], as well as with some [17] other disciples, Jmmanuel traveled to northern India. On the way he taught in various places and had to flee frequently because his speeches were revolutionary. Thus, his trip to India took him several years, and severe hardships were connected with it. In today's Pakistan, high up in the north and in the outermost spurs of the western Himalayas, his mother became very sick and died when Jmmanuel was about 38 years old.

Plejaren beamship, declassified
E. Meier - March 29, 1976
Hasenböl-Langenberg, Switzerland

After the loss of his mother, Jmmanuel moved on and went over to today's Indian Kashmir, where he continued to spread his teaching. He covered a vast portion of India, in the northern part of the land, and also today's Afghanistan and Pakistan, there where god-believing tribes had settled, which had emigrated...

When Jmmanuel was about 45 years old, he married a young and pretty woman, who bore him numerous children. He settled down, like any normal father of a family, in today's Srinagar in Kashmir, India. From there he undertook numerous trips and continued teaching his old, yet also new, 'teaching of the prophets'. At the age of 111, he died of natural causes in Srinagar. There, he was also buried in a grave.

Judas [Ischariot] died at the age of about 90 and was buried in a place not far from Srinagar. Jmmanuel's first-born son named Joseph, continued writing his father's story and left India after Jmmanuel's death. After a three-year's journey, he returned to the land of his father and lived, until his death, in Jerusalem, where he started a family and also had descendants. From India he took along the original scroll and some objects from his father and hid them in the tomb cave in which Jmmanuel had once lain.

He assumed that this place was the safest and would one day be found, when the time was ripe for it... [T]he scroll and the objects were also found there, 36 chapters of which are rendered here in translation.⁶

Unfortunately, a 2011 redux of the 'Talmud Jmmanuel' is full of falsifications by Bafath ET imposters working to undermine the scroll's original translation approved during Meier's genuine Plejaren contacts. The original 1990s editions are more concise, omitting German-English text comparison that distracts from its message.

The sequence of events of the life of Jmmanuel are well known to Eduard Meier from his earlier period of studies with the Plejaren ET visitors, as verified by Meier's many beamship photographs from that period. However, comments from the Cassiopaeans indicate his more recent work has been compromised by false information that appears throughout his later works, including the 2011 edition of 'The Talmud of Jmmanuel'.

A careful cross-examination of relevant information from several high-level sources affirms the modern Prophet Eduard Meier is the reincarnation of the Prophet Jmmanuel, whose spiritual teachings can be clearly discerned from the Nature parables of another teacher; an Essene Master who spoke the truth of Creation that inspired spiritual communion in Palestine. Irreproducible physical traces of crucifixion and resurrection events mark a burial shroud –authenticated by modern experts– that covered the body of the Essene Master.

The refined words of 'Jesus' of Nazareth are recorded in The Essene Gospel of Peace, published in 4 volumes by Edmond Székely after arrangements for its public release were quietly made by Rev. Angelo Mercati (1870-1955, at left), then Prefect of the Vatican Archives:

I remember well the first time I followed the arched road leading past the Osservatore Romano building to the court of the Belvedere, the seat of the Secret Archives, next to the Vatican Library.

When I entered the labyrinths of the Archives, I forgot completely the life of the city outside, for it was truly a world in itself. I felt very young and lost as I contemplated the endless corridors, vaulted archways and mysterious doors, all leading to more endless corridors. And everywhere, lining the shelves which reached dimly beyond my vision, were countless stacks of scrolls, codices, ancient manuscripts and disjointed papers...⁷

The original manuscripts of St. Jerome, believed lost in the fifth century, fortunately survived in the Benedictine monastery of Monte Cassino and in the Secret Archives of the Vatican. Among these manuscripts was the Essene Gospel of Peace. I had found the Source: Hebrew fragments of the Essene Gospel, the Aramaic version of which I had just read from the shelves of Msgr. Mercati's locked room.⁸

That state of wonder and awe before the miracle of life, which burned so brightly in the Essene Brotherhood at the Dead Sea, and which faded out with the passing of the last Essene, St. Francis, was mine to kindle once more with the discovery of the Essene Gospel. It is a book of wonders, not only for the wisdom and guidance contained in its pages, but because it shines and glows with the lost spirit of ages past, when the distance between man and God was not so great, and when all of nature sang with the voice of the angels.

The Essene Gospel is not the only manuscript of its kind in the Secret Archives of the Vatican. There were Gospels supposedly by Matthew, Barnabas, James, Peter and Thomas, used by the Manichaeans, together with the 'Book of the Obstetrician', 'The Essene Book of Genesis', 'The Canto of Christ', 'The Physiologist', written by the 'Essene heretics' and attributed to Ambrose, the pamphlets of Tertullian and the manuscripts of Simon the Magician. All these manuscripts were condemned as apocryphal and 'damned for eternity' along with their authors and followers...

We must involve ourselves again with the miracle of life. We have opened the Pandora's box of nuclear energy; we can also open with the key of truth the hidden treasure-house of ancient wisdom, waiting to be discovered in a forgotten manuscript, and ancient scroll, or in the unknown seat of knowledge within ourselves. We must rediscover our place in the world-picture, our original role as the partner of the Creator, helping to sow and harvest and make of the Earth once more a Garden. We must make our own discovery of the Essene Gospel.⁹

The sentiments of Székely reflect his acute awareness of high knowledge of Nature expressed so powerfully in the words of Jesus recorded in The Essene Gospel of Peace, which was not immediately accessible to the average person of that time, or even at the present time. Although given in quite simple terms, advanced teachings of the Essene Master transcend commonly-held apperceptions, delving deeply into the domain of the Holy Law of the Unity Field [$z_{n+1} = z_n^2$] described today by quantum mechanics. The Master's timeless lessons represent a Judean renewal of ancient Paleo-Sanskrit unity principles defined as The Law of One, exemplified by the global mandala distribution pattern of Atlantean pyramids and megalithic temples.

The Essene Master Jesus describes spiritual precepts of The Holy Law and the Tree of Life with clear references to transdimensional functions of Atlantean pyramids and temples, applying focused infrasound resonance in piezoelectric chambers to elevate clouds of electrum water vapor –generating HHO plasma:

Beyond the icy peaks of struggle lies the peace and beauty of the Infinite Garden of Knowledge, where the meaning of the Law is made known to the Children of Light. Here in the center of its forest stands the Tree of Life, mystery of mysteries.

He who hath found peace with the teachings of the Ancients, through the light of the mind, through the light of nature, and through the study of the Holy Word, hath entered the cloud-filled Hall of the Ancients, where dwelleth the Holy Brotherhood, of whom no man may speak.

Know this peace with thy mind, desire this peace with thy heart, fulfill this peace with thy body.

Levitation, telepathy, teleportation and interplanetary communication represent advanced applications of Unity Field physics knowledge, achieved through the global mandala distribution of firestone pyramid cities with psychoacoustic architecture. High knowledge of Atlantean Ayurveda is implicitly referenced in ‘The Sevenfold Peace’, through skillful use of distinctive votive language echoing the Sons of the Law of One:

And then did the Son of Man sever the golden threads that bound him to his Earthly Mother and his Heavenly Father; he stepped from the Holy Stream of Life where his body, his thoughts, and his feelings were one with the Law, and began to use only his own thoughts, his own feelings, and his own deeds, making hundreds of laws, where before there was only One.

The Edgar Cayce trance readings represent the primary source concerning Atlantean devotion to Indra: the One. Comprehensive teachings were given by the Essene Master regarding the ‘Ancients’ or ‘Great Ones’; antediluvian inhabitants of gigantic trees that lived during the first phase of Atlantis, from 74,000-51,000bp:

Long ago, before the Great Flood, the Great Ones walked the Earth, and the giant trees, even those which now are no more than legend, were their home and their kingdom. They lived many score of generations, for they ate from the table of the Earthly Mother, and slept in the arms of the Heavenly Father, and they knew not disease, old age, nor death. To the Sons of Men did they bequeath all the glory of their kingdoms, even the hidden knowledge of the Tree of Life which stands in the middle of the Eternal Sea.

Resonant words of the Nazarene One advise inward concentration for aligning with The Angel of Wisdom:

What is the thought well thought? It is that which the Child of Light thinketh, the one who holdeth the Holy Thought to be the most of value of all things else. So shall the Child of Light grow in concentration and communion, and he may develop Wisdom, and thus shall he continue until all the mysteries of the Infinite Garden where standeth the Tree of Life shall be revealed to him.

The Divine process inner knowledge acquisition through concentrated thought and meditation leads us out of dissonance, instead inspiring creation of resonant environments conferring great benefits to the temple of the human body. Developments in quantum biology provide scientific framework describing nonlocal interactions of the Unity Field defining Heavenly Order. In lieu, the Master gave zen riddles: "He is not manifest, he is not hidden. He is not revealed, nor is he unrevealed. My children, there are no words to tell that which he is!"

Revelation of the Holy Law affirms the Tree of Life blooms within the sacred Sanskrit mandala, representing the Unity Field of consciousness that synchronizes the biorhythmic states of all beings in sacred alignment:

Breathe long and deeply, that the Angel of Air may be brought within you. For the rhythm of thy breath is the key of knowledge which doth reveal the Holy Law.

Rhythmic breathing practices were also considered essential yogic methods among ancient Paleo-Sanskrit traditions, in temple chambers synchronizing heart rhythms to receive blessings from the Angel of Life:

We thank thee, Heavenly Father, for thou hast put us at a source of running streams at a living spring in a land of drought, watering an eternal garden of wonders, the Tree of Life, mystery of mysteries, growing everlasting branches for eternal planting to sink their roots into the stream of Life from an eternal source.

These essential principles offered by the Nazarene Master transcend all physical and spatial dimensions, by making a temple of the body to draw the upon the resonant forces of life directly from their source:

The Heavenly Father planted the holy Tree of Life, which standeth forever in the midst of the Eternal Sea. High in its branches sings a bird, and only those who have journeyed there, and have heard the mysterious song of the bird, only those shall see the Heavenly Father.

Natural imagery is powerfully employed in the Master's lessons to describe unseen cosmic forces, which today are also described by geophysical sciences as planetary resonance –humming infrasound 'songs' not heard by the average person, yet which become as the 'rushing of many waters' for adepts of meditation.

Editor and translator of the original Aramiac scrolls of The Essene Gospel of Peace, Books 1-4, Edmond Székely acknowledged the unity of the teachings of the Essene Jesus with more ancient Sanskrit traditions of the East, drawing a direct association between the Paleo-Sanskrit mandala and the Essene Tree of Life:

But whatever their origin, it is certain that the Essenes existed for a very long time as a brotherhood, perhaps under other names in other lands. The teaching appears in the Zend Avesta of Zarathustra, who translated it into a way of life that was followed for thousands of years. It contains the fundamental concepts of Brahmanism, the Vedas and the Upanishads; and the Yoga systems of India sprang from the same source. Buddha later gave forth essentially the same basic ideas and his sacred Bodhi Tree is correlated with the Essene Tree of Life. In Tibet the teaching once more found expression in the Tibetan Wheel of Life.

The unified Atlantean origin of knowledge concerning the sacred mandala of consciousness is impeccably supported by parallel archeological discoveries of the Ohum Pyramids in Central Ecuador, the Visoko Pyramids of Bosnia and the Padang Pyramid in Java, Indonesia; revealing high applications of 'firestone' geopolymer metamaterials at pyramids and temples sites in a global mandala network distribution pattern.

Standing waves of cosmic infrasound resonance comprising the Unity Field [$z_{n+1} = z_n^2$] are focused by the axis-symmetric architecture of the Orion Pyramid Complex of present-day Giza, Egypt. Psychoacoustic synchronization is induced at nodal points in alignment, facilitating a worldwide telepathy network based on the resonant heartbeat frequency of 1.45 Hz. By these advanced technological means, interplanetary communications were also made possible for engaging directly with Higher-selves inhabiting higher worlds:

In the purple night traversed by the continual Stars shall the souls of the Children of Light take wing and join the Angels of the Heavenly Father. Then shall the Eternal Sea reflect the shining glory of the heavens, and the branches of the Tree of Life reach to the Stars.

Secret ancient knowledge pertaining to the flaming Tree of Life has been mostly inaccessible to humans during the Age of Pisces, preceding scientific development of quantum physics and planetary resonance, We have all experienced a state of mass spiritual forgetfulness akin to severe amnesia. Low-resonance atmospheric conditions experienced during this period induce the blinding brightness of the Angel of Sun:

As no man can look upon the sun with naked eyes, so no man can see God face to face, lest he be consumed by the flames which guard the Tree of Life. Study, then, the Holy Law: for the face of the Sun and the face of God can be seen only by the one who hath within him the Revelation of the Law.

These penetrating statements from the Nazarene Master remain completely beyond the comprehension of all listeners, yet reflect the same advanced scientific awareness expressed in the wording of Atlantean texts and the votive names of temple devotees among the Sons of the Law of One. These special sources extol Universal healing from the Tree of Life, by enhancing electrophotonic healing processes in HHO plasma.

These hope-inspiring insights offered by Jesus of Nazareth foretold of the redemption of Earth by ET groups. High virtues are personified as immortal beings; inhabitants of invisible celestial worlds –the Holy Angels:

Thou, O Holy Law, the Tree of Life that standeth in the middle of the Eternal Sea, that is called, the Tree of Healing. The Tree of powerful Healing, the Tree of all Healing, and upon which rests the seeds of all we invoke...

We worship all the Angels, the good, heroic and bounteous Angels, of the bodily world of the Earthly Mother, and those of the Invisible Realms, those in the Celestial Worlds of the Heavenly Father. We worship the ever blessing immortal Angels, the brilliant ones of splendid countenance, the lofty and devoted creatures of the Heavenly Father, they who are imperishable and Holy. We worship the resplendent, the glorious, those bountiful Holy Angels, who rule aright, and who adjust all things rightly...

It is they, the Holy Angels, who shall restore the World! Which will thenceforth never grow old and never die! Never decaying, ever living and ever increasing. Then Life and Immortality will come and the World will be restored! Creation will grow deathless, the Kingdom of the Heavenly Father will prosper, and evil shall have perished!

This detailed identification of the Holy Angels offered in The Essene Gospel of Peace includes special insights into the actions of advanced ET overseers from benevolent civilizations, as evinced by the shining beamships of the Plejaren civilization working with Eduard Meier to educate Earthly humanity (above).

Penetrating truths expressed by the Essene Master pertain to future events that are nearing their time of fulfillment. His prescient words were often accompanied by the manifestation of 'divine sparks'; rapid bursts of HHO plasma flashes observed over the head of Jesus were seen by his listeners as a crown of wisdom:

Then Jesus rose, and all else remained sitting, for every man felt the power of his words. And then the full moon appeared between the breaking clouds and folded Jesus in its brightness. And sparks flew upward from his hair, and he stood among them in the moonlight, as though he hovered in the air. And no man moved, neither was the voice of any heard. And no one knew how long a time had passed, for time stood still.

This breathtaking description matches exactly what has been captured on high-resolution video¹⁰ of Mo-Pai Master John Chang, keeper of ancient qi healing traditions in Java, Indonesia.¹¹ As carefully explained by Chang, his abilities result from many years of daily training involving special qi-generating exercises in resonant underground chambers for which the world's pyramids and megalithic temples were constructed.

Barefoot contact with magnetic firestone geopolymers, in combination with drinking electrum nanocolloids, greatly enhanced the bioelectrical capacity of the human body. Natural electrophotonic processes of the body are significantly enhanced under these resonant temple conditions, inducing emission of

Many psychic mediums and UFO contactees have given accounts of the golden luminosity of the eyes of angelic ET visitors, while reports of demons with glowing red eyes are also well known. The Essene Gospel affirms dedication to the Holy Law is responsible for the luminosity of a Master's eyes: "The commandment of the Law is pure, enlightening the eyes" –generated by resonant transmutation of potassium in the blood:

Resonant temperature-induced nuclear reactions become enhanced under natural barefoot conditions of bioelectrification, which excite reactive oxygen species (ROS) processes that effectively increase the available induction energy for the great variety of elemental conversions constantly taking place throughout the body, including atomic recombinations of potassium into calcium in retinal capillaries.

Studies identifying biophoton emission from the human eye¹² affirm that the photocurrent transduction process constitutes a two-way pathway, whereby enhanced conditions of bioelectrification within caves or pyramid chambers generate electroluminescence within retinal ganglion cells. This reversed cascade process is driven by increased calcium production from electro-enhanced low energy nuclear reactions that become resonantly excited by positron/electron emission from decaying reaction products.

A critical threshold is surpassed as strong electrical currents are applied to the body, whereby the normal direction of photocurrent passing from retinal ganglion cells to the optic nerve is reversed, with ion cascade signals being transmitted to the microvillar membrane, inducing luminescence in retinal ganglion cells. The specific wavelengths of light emitted by the microvilli are determined by their structural characteristics, with the abundance of reported cases involving red eye glow, while a minority of cases report orange, yellow, gold and even green eye glow.¹³

Exact phonon resonance calculations confirm this newly recognized atomic source of biophoton emission. Resonant atomic transmutation occurs within every living cell, driving the weak biophotonic emissions of all living organisms. This fact was reaffirmed by Jesus upon questioning: "Master, where is the fire of life?" asked some of them. "In you, in your blood, in your bodies." Clear words preserved since the time of the Master in The Essene Gospel of Peace concisely define circulatory transmutation as the Fire of Life:

For all the manifold gifts of Life, we do worship the Fire of Life, and the Holy Light of the Heavenly Order... The most beneficial and most helpful, the Fire of Life! The most supporting, the most bountiful, that Fire which is the House of the Lord!... A sanctuary of the Holy Spirit is the body in which the Fire of Life doth burn with eternal Light.

The perpetual glow of biophotonic radiation from the human body cannot be seen by the eyes in our Earthly realm, yet becomes visible as an aura surrounding the body for enlightened adepts of all kinds. High-resonance atmospheric conditions achieved in ancient times through use of the pyramids reflects the elevated conditions of celestial worlds, inhabited by angels we occasionally encounter as ET visitors.

“Master, where is... the Fire of Death?” asked others.

“It is the fire which blazes outside your body, which is hotter than your blood. With that Fire of Death you cook your foods in your homes and in your fields. I tell you truly, in the same fire which destroys your foods and your bodies, even as the fire of malice, which ravages your thoughts, ravages your spirits... Eat nothing, therefore, which a stronger fire than the Fire of Life has killed. Wherefore, prepare and eat all fruits of trees, and all grasses of the fields, and all milk of beasts good for eating. For all these are fed and ripened by the Fire of Life; all are the gift of the Angels of our Earthly Mother. But eat nothing to which only the Fire of Death gives savor, for such is of Satan.”

“Shun all that is too hot and too cold. For it is the will of your Earthly Mother that neither heat nor cold should harm our body. And let not your bodies become either hotter or colder than as God’s angels warm or cool them. And if you do the commandments of the Earthly Mother, then as oft as your body becomes too hot, she will send the Angel of Coolness to cool you, and as oft as your body becomes too cold, she will send you the Angel of Heat to warm you again.”¹⁴

These unusual teachings of the Essene Master reflect high knowledge of thermoregulation processes of the human body, indicating consumption of hot foods and beverages results in physical intolerance to extreme heat and cold. This fact is directly confirmed by Paleo-Sanskrit wisdom traditions shared by Vedruss sage Anastasia, who eats only fresh, raw food from the source and is able to endure sub-zero Siberian winters.¹⁵

The preservation of ancient Paleo-Sanskrit spiritual traditions is also evident in the great similarity of the Byzantine Cross (above, right) and the sacred Sanskrit mandala represented by Buddhist traditions in India, Nepal and Tibet as a circle within a square; rendered today as Prime Cross quantum fractal (above, left). High scientific knowledge illuminates Master Jesinavarah’s remarks concerning the strengthening and comforting effects of green photons reflected by foliage when looked upon by human eyes:

“For in the grass are all the angels. Here is the Angel of the Sun, here in the brightness of the green color of the blades of wheat. For no one can look upon the sun when it is high in the heavens, for the eyes of the Son of Man are blinded by its radiant light. And it is for this that the Angel of Sun turns to green all that to which she gives life, that the Son of Man may look upon the many and various shades of green and find strength and comfort therein.”¹⁶

The subtle psychological benefits of seeing verdant foliage explains the adverse reactions of modern-day astronauts reporting depression and mental weakness; having been deprived of exposure to green photons while in orbit. By contrast, the calming and strength-reducing effects of exposure to pink photons were briefly explained to Michel Desmarquet by Thao during spaceflight to the Golden Planet.¹⁷ Master Thao’s teachings expand on those of the Essene Master Jesinavarah, relating the Holy Stream of Sound with the Holy Angels:

Philae Temple, Egypt

Think on the streams that are born in the desert after a sudden storm, and the roaring sound of the waters as they rush past. Truly, this is the voice of God, if you did but know it. For as it is written, in the beginning was the Sound, and the Sound was with God, and the Sound was God. I tell you truly, when we are born, we enter the world with the sound of God in our ears, even the singing of the vast chorus of the sky, and the holy chant of the stars in their fixed rounds; it is the Holy Stream of Sound that traverses the vault of stars and crosses the endless kingdom of the Heavenly Father. It is ever in our ears, so do we hear it not. Listen for it, then, in the silence of noontide; bathe in it, and let the rhythm of the music of God beat in your ears until you are one with the Holy Stream of Sound. It was this Sound which formed the earth and the world, and brought forth the mountains, and set the stars in their thrones of glory in the highest heavens.

And you shall bathe in the Stream of Sound, and the music of its waters shall flow over you; for in the beginning of the times so did we all share in the Holy Stream of Sound that gave birth to all creation. And the mighty roaring of the Stream of Sound will fill your whole body, and you will tremble before its might. Then breathe deeply of the angel of air, and become the sound itself, that the Holy Stream of Sound may carry you to the endless kingdom of the Heavenly Father, there where the rhythm of the world rises and falls.

And when darkness gently closes the eyes of the angels of the Earthly Mother, then shall you also sleep, that your spirit may join the unknown angels of the Heavenly Father. And in the moments before you sleep, then shall you think of the bright and glorious stars, the white, shining, far-seen and far-piercing stars. For your thoughts before sleep are as the bow of the skillful archer, that sends the arrow where he wills.

Let your thoughts before sleep be with the stars; for the stars are Light, and the Heavenly Father is Light, even that Light which is a thousand times brighter than the brightness of a thousand suns. Enter the Holy Stream of Light, that the shackles of death may loose their hold for ever, and breaking free from the bonds of earth, ascend the Holy Stream of Light through the blazing radiance of the stars, into the endless kingdom of the Heavenly Father...

One day your body will return to the Earthly Mother; even also your ears and your eyes. But the Holy Stream of Life, the Holy Stream of Sound, and the Holy Stream of Light, these were never born, and can never die. Enter the Holy Streams, even that Life, that Sound, and that Light which gave you birth; that you may reach the kingdom of the Heavenly Father and become one with him, even as the river empties into the far-distant sea. More than this cannot be told, for the Holy Streams will take you to that place where words are no more, and even the Holy Scrolls cannot record the mysteries therein.

The Master's description of the Holy Stream of Light gives an accessible explanation of the activity of the Astral body, which separates from the physical body during sleep to commune with the Higher-self. Full knowledge of the Holy Law was demonstrated during his lessons on many occasions. His hands radiated a miraculous qi healing energy, while shimmering light surrounded the body of Jesus during qi field projection:

“What secrets must we know to see and hear and touch the Holy Stream of Life?” And Jesus did not answer. But he placed his hands around the growing blades of grass in the pot, gently, as if it were the forehead of a little child. And he closed his eyes, and around him were waves of light, shimmering in the sun, as the summer heat makes the light to tremble under a cloudless sky. And the Brother knelt and bowed their heads in reverence before the power of the angels which poured forth from the sitting figure of Jesus; and still he sat in silence, with his hands closed as if in prayer around the blades of grass.

The wisdom of the Essene Master was reinforced by direct demonstration; generating powerful EM fields around his body through high-intensity qi emission, drawn from the deep well of energy stored within the temple of his body. Sacred teachings imparted by the Nazarene One through the Essene Gospel of Peace relate essential truths now made comprehensible through the scientific advancement of quantum biology.

Trance medium Edgar Cayce explained the importance of visionary experiences that united the Essenes, calling into service certain individuals to prepare the way for the entrance and spiritual teachings of Christ:

Before that we find the entity was in the Palestine land, during those days when the Master walked in the earth; and when there were the peoples about those activities of not only the birth but His sojourns before and after the return from Egypt –those whom Judy blessed, that labored in the preserving of the records of His activities as the Child; the activities of the Wise Men, the Essenes and the groups to which Judy had been the prophetess, the healer, the writer, the recorder– for all of these groups. [Reading 1472-1]

As to the associations, many of those of other lands came to the entity, with the counseling together. The associations with Judy as the leader of the Essene peoples only intensified or made the preparations as to choosing the groups that were to be the channels through which there was the possibility, the probability that the awakening should come to the peoples of that period; as well as to the world. [Reading 2880-2]

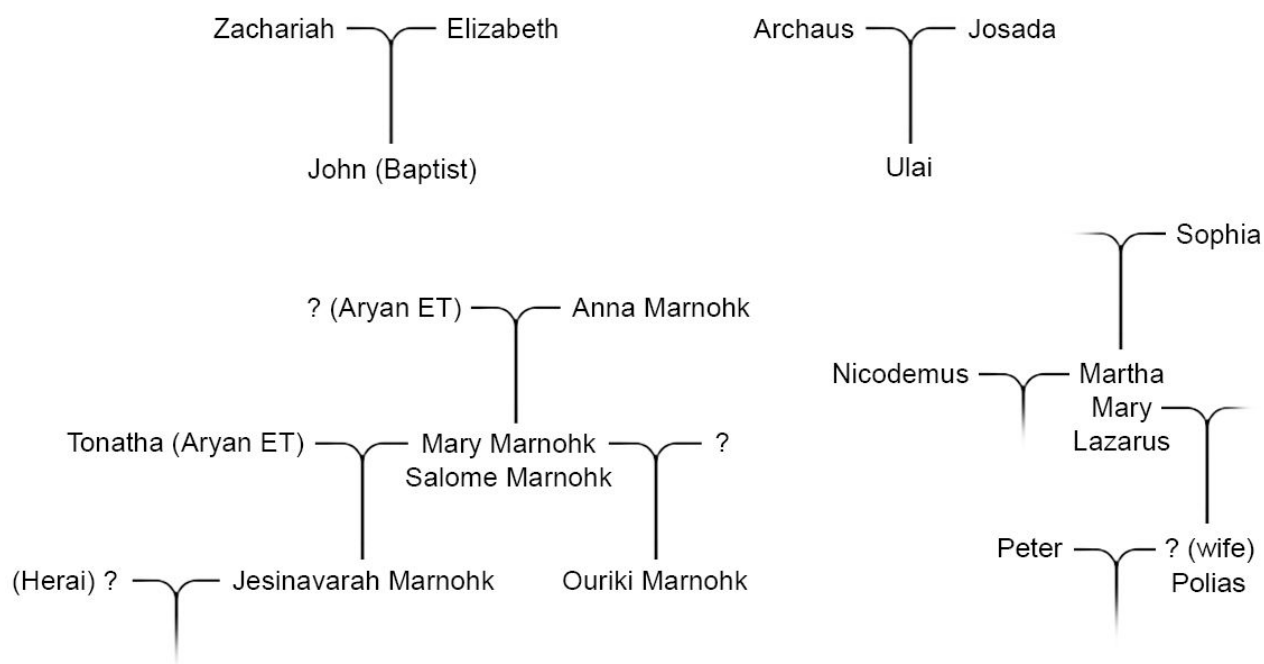

Zachariah was a just man, then living in the hills of Galilee; the priest who offered sacrifice for the month Nisan. There were those visions or experiences... [that] his wife Elizabeth conceived, [and]... brought into the experience of... the Essenes –a great deal of questioning– as to what manner of individual would be required... as the helper, director, or nurse, in circumstances that would naturally arise if these visions were to be fulfilled. [Reading 2175-6]

[Mary and Elizabeth's] education was rather with those headed by the Essenes through which Zachariah was called as the one to and through whom would come those influences as became the forerunner of the Christ [through John]. These were rather in the Palestine land. They were in the Holy Land, and at Mount Moriah...

Q: Please describe Jesus' education in India, schools attended –did He attend the Essene school in Jagannath taught by Lamaas, and did He study in Benares also under the Hindu teacher Udraka?
 A: He was there at least three years. Arcahia was the teacher. [Reading 2067-7]

The acquaintanceships, the friendships which were established between Mary, Elizabeth and the other Mary [2946], all were parts of the experience and because of the position of Martha throughout those activities she was considered rather one of the leaders, or one to whom others made appeal to have positions or conditions set in motion so that there was given more concessions to the Holy Women who followed Jesus from place to place when there were those periods of His Palestine ministry. This robe Nicodemus presented then to the Master, Jesus, after the healing of the widow of Nain's son, who was a relative of Nicodemus. [Reading 3175-3]

Partial Genealogy of Essene Order Families

This entity then came into activity in that heterogeneous or conglomerate thought, –in the name then Ulai. The father of the entity was one Archaus –a close adherent of the Essene's thought yet of the orthodox group– and the mother was a close associate of the mother of Martha, Mary and Lazarus, in the name Josada. [Reading 993-5]

Yes, we have the entity here, Thomas Sugrue, with the desire and the purpose for the understanding and knowledge of the physical experience of the Master's in the Earth. In those days when there had been more and more of the leaders of the peoples in Carmel –the original place where the school of prophets was established during Elijah's time, Samuel– these were called then Essenes; and those that were students of what ye would call astrology, numerology, phrenology, and those phases of that study of the return of individuals –or incarnation...

Then there were again those soundings –that is, the approach of that which had been handed down and had been the experiences from the sages of old– that an angel was to speak. As this occurred when there was the choosing of the mate that had –as in only the thought of those so close– been immaculately conceived, these brought to the focal point the preparation of the mother...

Q: Was Ann prepared for her part in the drama as mother of Mary? A: Only as in the general, not as specific as Mary after Mary being pointed out. See, there was no belief in the fact that Ann proclaimed that the child was without father. It's like many proclaiming today that the Master was immaculately conceived; they say "Impossible!" They say that it isn't in compliance with the natural law. It is a natural law, as has been indicated by the projection of mind into matter and thus making of itself a separation to become encased in same –as man did.

Then, that there has been an encasement was a beginning. Then there must be an end when this must be or may be broken; and this began at that particular period. Not the only –this particular period with Ann and then the Master as the son; but the only begotten of the Father in the flesh as a son of an immaculately conceived daughter!

Q: Neither Mary nor Jesus, then, had a human father? A: Neither Mary nor Jesus had a human father. They were one soul so far as the Earth is concerned; because [else] she would not be incarnated in flesh, you see.

Q: How were the maidens selected and by whom? A: By all of those who chose to give those that were perfect in body and in mind for the service; and as Ann –or Anna– gave the same, and in the presentation could not be refused because of the perfection of body, though many questioned and produced a division because she proclaimed it had been conceived without knowing a man...

Q: How old was Mary at the time she was chosen? A: Four; and, as ye would call, between twelve and thirteen when designated as the one chosen by the angel on the stair...

Q: How old was Mary at the time of the marriage? A: Sixteen.

Q: Give a detailed description for literary purposes, of the choosing of Mary on the temple steps.

A: The temple steps –or those that led to the altar, these were called the temple steps. These were those upon which the sun shone as it arose of a morning when there were the first periods of the chosen maidens going to the altar for prayer; as well as for the burning of the incense.

On this day, as they mounted the steps all were bathed in the morning sun... As Mary reached the top step, then there were the thunder and lightning, and the angel led the way, taking the child by the hand before the altar. This was the manner of choice,... the showing of the way; for she led the others on this particular day. [Reading 5749-8]

Q: Tell of the work, the prophecies, the hopes of Phinehas and Elkatma, Judy's parents, at Carmel, as Essenes.

A: These were those activities that may be illustrated very well in the ministry of the parents of the strong man, –that a parallel may be drawn; as to how first there was the appearance to the mother, and then the father, as to what should be the ministry, the activity of the entity that was to lead that group, and aid in the early teaching of the prophecies of the life of the child Jesus, as well as of John. For, John was more the Essene than Jesus. For Jesus held rather to the spirit of the law, and John to the letter of same...

Q: Where did Judy receive her education...? A: The Holy Spirit, and the mother and father; not from other sources, though there were those activities from all of the teachings of the East, through those early periods before there were those acceptances of Judy as the leader of the Essenes at Carmel at that period.

Q: During the lifetime of Jesus where did Judy live and with whom?

A: In Carmel; with the companion and the mother. [Reading 2067-11]

In the name then Polias, and a follower of him who taught in the catacombs of the city, he who was crucified with his head downward, and a member of his household, being then a sister of Peter's wife. In this experience is seen those necessities of the early religious training by the entity, and of those set rules as pertain to the spiritual life. With the awakenings that have come to the entity in the last few years, many of the dogmatic influences in this direction have been broken down, and the entity has sought in many channels for that to grasp hold of that would answer for that as seems innately not wholly grasped but by few. [Reading 1742-2]

The many Life Readings and spiritual explanations given by Cayce pertaining to the actual life of Jesus of Nazareth provide many details that correspond to Bible passages, as well as others that go far beyond. The Source stated Mary and her mother Ann were impregnated by ET males as part of a grand spiritual mission, whereby Jesus possessed 3/4 ET blond genetic heritage. The special case of 2 consecutive generations of ET impregnations was stated to be unique, in contradistinction with that of Immanuel, son of the ET Gabriel.

The Akashic Source indirectly addressed important future events related to the ascension of Earth to a 4th density realm as the termination of purely physical existence on this planet –when the present ‘encasement’ of human consciousness in the confines of the physical body ‘may be broken’. Few understand these words.

Interestingly, Zachariah (husband of Elizabeth, father of John the Baptist) has been indicated as the original author of ‘The Gospel of Paul’, according to the Cassiopaeian transmissions of psychic medium Laura Knight-Jadczyk and her group.¹⁸ The writings of Zachariah were likely given false attribution to obfuscate all potential connections to the Essene communities where Jesus of Nazareth actually was born and raised.

On several occasions, Life Readings given for American clients of Edgar Cayce included surprising information pertaining to prior incarnations as individuals who directly associated with the Essene Master:

Hence we find the entity, as one Anna, making overtures to the peoples –with the companion Jebocel (who has been, who is in a manner, associated with the entity in a portion of its experience) –as channels– being the cousin of the entity who became the channel through which the Prince of Peace came. [Reading 1904-2]

In the one before this we find in this same land wherein the entity [then had] now has lost its earthly existence. Then in the fisherman on the Sea of Galilee, and became the follower of the Nazarene, the Gift to the World, and the entity sought this out and brought many to the sound of the Living Words as were given to the peoples round about, and the entity was one of those who studied the lessons and had reached that point where the soul knew the awakening and the purpose for which it had set itself in earth's plane. The name then was Andrew. In the personalities exhibited in the individuality of the entity in the present plane, the desire to ever hold as is [that which is] only acceptable of the Prince of Peace, and the ability of the entity to give much knowledge to others [only?] save through such lessons and illustrations as given by the Master. [Reading 341-8]

On several occasions Cayce responded to religious or spiritual questions with long explanations concerning the fundamental relationship of human beings to the Creator as an extended process of learning with definite stages, comprising a grand progression that is critical for our collective development through a sequence of many lifetimes. It is only within this broader context that humanity may begin to comprehend the purpose of the Master's teaching on Earth:

In seeking such information, one would do well to understand what premise the existent conditions that are as personalities or latent in the individuality of the entity, and why, or what caused those conditions to be existent in the experience of the entity as an entity. Would one review those lessons as have been compiled and preserved throughout the ages of man in his reasoning relationships with the Creative Energy, or God, his relationships to God and God's relationships to man, one would see how that individuals were called for definite purposes through that they (the individuals) had built in their own experience, and how that such individuals in a life's experience faltered or failed to keep that purpose for which they were brought into being by the acts of their own will, that which makes man in the relationship as does exist, that given man that he might become a companion with the Father, the Son, and the holy angels, and the entities that might dwell in peace and with Him. When such individuals faltered, then those things of which the flesh is heir to beset them (in man's terminology) with ills, evil companions, and hatred was bred, and enemies seemed to compass about.

When such an individual turned again and sought the face of the Father, sought for forgiveness, pled his own cause –as has ever been promised– the Father heard, even though afar off, and there came into being in the physical understanding, the mental body, the imaginative body, the physical body, that as was sought for. Then man went so far away in the concepts of his own wisdom, that those things became as natural consequences in the lives of individuals, and man bethought himself as a creator by aping even Creative Forces, which –used in a material sense– brought then even to his own destruction. Then the pity, the love –still– for the Creator, for that created, ever dominant in the heart and soul, that the cry went up for that continued establishment of the access to the Father, even as was promised to His servant David.

Then the entrance into the world of the Prince of Peace, that they who found in Him that way, that light, that water, that brother that gave them the access to the throne of grace itself, might have those errors forgiven –and remembered no more, save as has been given, that those things that so easily beset and the dog returns to the vomit and the hog to his wallow! Then, those things that are existent in the experience of an entity –from its advent into the material plane, where there becomes physical, third dimensional, manifestations of this divine love– what an individual does about such knowledge, such relationships, becomes the inclinations, the desires, the wishes of the heart; for "Thy speech often betrayeth thee," for "Of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh," and all nature hath been tamed but the tongue hath no man tamed! It may be stilled in the earth, but that it has spoken goes on –and on– and builds, or is retarded, by that way as has been prepared for those who would seek His face! [Reading 275-22]

See, through the intuitive self, the spirit of that which impelled the recorder of the notes or the music, and there is aroused in self then that which will make for periods when not of self but rather as of angels in the seraphim choir will be the activity; rather as of the spirit of truth. For, know ye well that the Prince of Peace was a harpist Himself!

In the meditation, then, make thy actions rather such as might be guided by Him; and the influence and the activities, and that which it brings to self and that which it gives out and creates in the hearts, minds, and souls of others, will be spiritual –and spiritually uplifting– and aiding to all of the emotional influences in the activities of individuals, as to bring healing, harmony, joy, peace, love, in the experience of the hearers. [Reading 275-35]

Precious words from the Akashic Source express the essence of the Master's teachings as offerings of timeless truths that bring lasting peace and compounding joy to the hearts and souls of all those who seek to gain, in unlimited measure, from his vast wisdom and penetrating knowledge:

Depend not one upon another; rather depend upon Him, working together each in their respective sphere. To all are given a portion, a part, in this work. Let each look not upon that that would exalt themselves in any manner; rather that the feeling, the thought, may be better expressed, that those who seek may gain the closer vision of the Master's face, may have in their hearts, their souls, that peace that comes only from being close to Him; for when He speaks, only peace may abound. Others may make afraid. Others may bring that force that would sound far, yet He –the Prince of Peace– brings cheer, gladness, to the hearts and souls of those who seek to be a channel of blessing through Him! [Reading 262-5]

The many spiritual explanations given through the Source to the clients of Edgar Cayce resonate with the latest scientific finds regarding the markings left by high-intensity UV radiation on the Burial Shroud of Jesus, and corroborated in every detail by archeological discovery of the crucifixion site by Ronald Wyatt:

But when the Prince of Peace came into the Earth for the completing of His own development in the Earth, He overcame the flesh and temptation. So He became the first of those that overcame death in the body, enabling Him to so illuminate, to so revivify that body as to take it up again, even when those fluids of the body had been drained away by the nail holes in His hand and by the spear piercing His side.

Yet this body, this entity, too, may do these things; through those promises that were so new yet so old, as given by Him. "Not of myself do I these things," saith He, "but God, the Father that worketh in me; for I come from Him, I go to Him."

He came, the Master, in flesh and blood, even as thou didst come in flesh and blood. Yet as He then proclaimed to thee, there is a cleansing of the body, of the flesh, of the blood, in such measures that it may become illumined with power from on high; that is within thine own body to will! "Thy will, O God; not mine, but Thine, be done in me, through me."

This was the message as He gave when He, too, overcame; surrendering all power unto Power itself, surrendering all will unto the will of the Father; making of self then a channel through which others taking hope through the knowledge that He hath perfected Himself, may bring to thee that grace, that mercy, that is eternity with Him and in Him. [Reading 1152-1]

Cayce's trance statements reveal the elevated spiritual activity of the Master were orchestrated as a special demonstration of the perfection of his spirit, by which he was able to transcend death in a flash of incomparable luminosity that is the natural karmic consequence of his selfless acts. Through the Master's spiritual teaching and the absolutely fearless relinquishing of his own life force, he effectively demonstrated the ultimate spiritual accomplishment of a human being incarnating on a physical plane.

This ultimate attainment was concisely described by Yaqui Elder Don Juan during the apprenticeship of author Carlos Castaneda, when he explained the high-intensity photon burst produced by total awareness:

"The supreme accomplishment of human beings," he said, "is to attain that level of attention while retaining the life-force, without becoming a disembodied awareness moving like a flicker of light..." [Yaqui Elder Don Juan then explained that]... the glow produced by a state of total awareness... is seen as a burst of incandescence in the entire luminous egg. It is an explosion of light of such a magnitude that the boundaries of the shell are diffused and the inside emanations extend themselves beyond anything imaginable...

"Certainly [these attainments represent special cases]. They happen only to seers. No other living men or any other living creatures brighten up like that. Seers who deliberately attain total awareness are a sight to behold. That is the moment when they burn from within. The fire from within consumes them. And in full awareness they fuse themselves to the emanations at large, and glide into eternity."¹⁹

Ancient Nahuatl knowledge shared by Don Juan provides a precise description of the resurrection event described in the Bible and recorded on the Burial Shroud of Jesus as scorch marks produced by the burst of radiation released from the core of His body at the moment of his resurrection. Ron Wyatt's 1979 discovery of the crucifixion site of Christ was inspired from above –his arm spontaneously pointed to the exact site as he passed by rubble-filled pits that blocked the entrance to an ancient system of tunnels.

One of the Life Readings given by Cayce identified a client's previous life as Polias, one among those teachers who worked in the catacombs below Jerusalem, which included the square hole cut into the bedrock for the crucifix that was visited as a holy shrine some time after the resurrection took place.²⁰

The Cayce past life readings clearly indicate that the home of Judy, prophetess, recorder and leader of the Essene Order lived in the community of Carmel, near the Sea of Galilee and the town of Nazareth. The etymology of the ancient Aramaic name 'Nazareth' is a combination of two words: 'nazar' and 'eth', together conveying the votive meaning "to consecrate oneself continually".²¹ Clearly, the naming of 'Jesus the Nazarene' is made in contradistinction to the life story of Jmmanuel, born in Bethlehem, as given in the Bible. The Aramaic pronunciation of the Master's full name 'Jesinavarah' is "Yeshinavarah".

Resurrection of Jesinavarah
Garden Tomb, Jerusalem

This interpretation of the full title of Jesus as the 'Nazarene One' is directly supported by highly detailed information concerning the Essene Master shared through the June, 1987 ET contact case of Michel Desmarquet in Queensland, Australia. Michel was given special information regarding the life and travels of the 'Nazarene One' to Honshu, Japan; and his relationship to a pair of individuals commemorated by ancient mound tombs in the modern-day Japanese town of Shingo, formerly known as Herai.

Information provided to Michel during his extended journey aboard the spacecraft of ET giants from the golden planet of Thiaoouba included detailed explanations that provide the only accurate account of the events surrounding the Essene Master. The giant ET Thao provided Michel with a succinct account of events portrayed in the Bible within a broader context of the Thiaoouban spiritual mission on Earth.

Thao explained that the infant born in Bethlehem was not suitable for their mission –that another type of messenger was required; one that had lived on Thiaoouba as a Master in Nature. Thao's teachings also offer insight into the archeological findings of Ronald Wyatt, who accurately identified the exact site of the crucifixion, as well as the garden tomb of Joseph of Arimathea and related underground sites. Wyatt's documented findings revealed magnetic geopolymer basalt fragments in the rubble of the First Temple.

High-level information shared by UFO contactee Michel Desmarquet elaborates the ET origin of the Essene Master Jesus in concise terms. The complex explanations of Michel's ET teacher Thao, Master in Nature from the golden planet of Thiaoouba, imparted great knowledge concerning the spiritual mission of Jesus:

'Everyone has need, both physically and mentally, of his neighbour's friendship –not only on your planet, but on all planets. As Jesus said, when we sent him to you almost 2000 years ago: 'Love each other' –but of course...'

'Thao!' I interrupted again, almost rudely this time. 'What did you just say in regard to Jesus?'

'Jesus, Michel was sent to Earth from Thiaoouba almost 2000 years ago –just as Lationusi also went to Earth and has returned.' Of all that had been explained to me, it was this unexpected revelation which shocked me most.²²

Thao clear references passages from The Essene Gospel of Peace: "Love one another, for God is love, and so shall angels know that you walk on his paths." Another psalm offers, "The Angel of Love, whose healing waters flow in a never-ending stream from the Sea of Eternity. Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of the Heavenly Father, and every one that loveth is born of the Heavenly Order and knoweth the Angels."

Concise language used in the Aramaic texts of the Essenes leaves no doubt that the term 'Angel' generally refers to healing influences of Nature, yet is also specifically used to identify high-tech human visitors from other worlds. Further insights were shared by Master Thao during a discussion on spiritual advancement:

'First if you want to 'elevate' yourself, you must meditate and then concentrate, which is different, although often the two are confused. You do not need to go to a special place, for the greatest and most beautiful temple of man is inside himself. There, he can enter into communication with his Higher-self, by concentration; asking his Higher-self to help him surmount his Earthly, material difficulties. But certain people need to communicate with other human beings, like themselves, and they can meet together for this purpose. Those of them who are more experienced, will be able to give advice, but no one should ever adopt a position as master.

'The Master came 2,000 years ago –or, rather, I should say 'one of the masters', but men crucified him. However, for approximately 300 of your years, the message he brought with him was followed.²³

Later during his visit to the golden planet of Thiaoouba, Michel was informed of specific details their spiritual mission on Earth, including the special role of Master Aarioc in assuming the body of Christ as a messenger:

'The only messenger we could send to Earth had to be one of us. The 'Christ' who died on the cross in Jerusalem, was called Aarioc.'²⁴

While this assertion seems to contradict information offered through other high-level sources, it actually provides resolution to the longstanding quandary: "who was Christ?" The Thiaoouban votive name 'Aarioc' is comprised of five Paleo-Sanskrit hieroglyphs, together reading: a a r i o c, meaning "ah, son of This, oh, cloud" referencing the elevation of HHO plasma 'clouds' by the Unity Field of cosmic infrasound resonance.

The inspired writings of Michel Desmarquet offers keen insight and an astonishing perspective concerning the spiritual role of physical suffering, endured by an individual such as Christ, on his direct path to perfection of spirit. These precious statements from Thao elucidate the highest attainment of all humanoid lifeforms throughout the galaxy, revealing the complex spiritual purposes behind Aarioc's mission on Earth as 'Jesus':

'Our plan was to capture public imagination by sending a messenger of peace. The story of the birth of Jesus, as you know it, with the Virgin Mary as mother, is quite true. The appearance of an angel at the Annunciation is correct in every detail. We sent a spaceship and one of us appeared before the virgin, who was indeed a virgin, telling her she was going to become pregnant. The embryo was implanted in her while she was under hypnosis...

'As I was just explaining to you, we have the knowledge. We can revive the dead; cure the deaf and the blind; make people walk who are paralysed; we can cure any malady you care to name. We are masters, not of Nature, but in Nature, and we can do the thing most difficult of all –we can generate life spontaneously.

'Out of the release of cosmic ray, we can create any type of living creature, including man... We can create a human body, but that is done only by the great Thaori, taking infinite care, for the human body must be inhabited by several bodies, as you are aware –the physiological, the astral etc. If not, it would merely be a robot. Perfect knowledge is therefore required for such an undertaking.'

‘So, how much time do you need to create a baby?’

‘You have not quite grasped what I am saying, Michel. I am speaking, not of a baby but, in this case, of an adult human being. A man of twenty or thirty years- of-age can be created by the Thaori in approximately twenty-four of your Earth hours.’²⁵

From these concise explanations there can be no doubt that Thao speaks of two distinct individuals, yet in both cases she calls him ‘Jesus’. This can be explained. Both individuals were crucified during the same time period, and their life stories have been mixed together to create the Jesus’ narrative given in the Bible.

The adult body of one of these spiritual teachers was created in 24 hours on Thiaoouba by the emanations of the great Thaori, for the Astral body of Aarioc to inhabit while on Earth until the ultimate miracle of his resurrection. The second teacher and prophet named ‘Immanuel’ was born in Bethlehem, who Thao clearly identified as the product of artificial insemination, referred to in the Bible as the ‘immaculate conception’:

‘So, our ‘angel’ implanted an embryo, so that Mary, a virgin, found herself pregnant. By acting in this way, we hoped to attract the attention of the people and emphasise that the coming of Jesus was really a remarkable event. On the birth of the child, we appeared before the shepherds in the same way that I demonstrated a few moments ago. We didn’t send the three famous ‘wise men’ –they are part of the legend that has been grafted on to real events. However, we did guide the shepherds and a group of the people towards the spot where Jesus was born. This was accomplished by sending forth one of our spheres and rendering it luminous. The optical effect thereby created, made it, indeed, resemble a star over Bethlehem. Nowadays, if we were to do such a thing, people would be crying, ‘UFO!’

Eventually the priests, and those who the priests named ‘prophets’, learned of the birth. In view of the phenomena of the star and the ‘angels’, the prophets announced to the people, the birth of the Messiah, referring to him as the King of the Jews... The baby Jesus, born in Bethlehem, proved, by the miracles pertaining to his birth, that he was quite special and was, in fact, the Messiah. So, we had captured the imagination of the people but, when a baby is born, its Astral body cannot ‘know all’ in regards to its previous knowledge. This was the case of Moses too, and yet he was a great person.

‘We required a messenger who would be able to persuade humanity that there was another life beyond this one, through reincarnation of the Astral body, etc...In order to transmit our message, we needed someone who behaved like an extraordinary being –like someone coming from ‘the heavens’, who performed what would appear to be ‘miracles’. Such a person would be believed and his teachings would be listened to.

‘As you know, an Astral body being reincarnated as a baby, passes through ‘The River of Oblivion’ and his earlier material knowledge is effaced. Therefore, the child born in Bethlehem would not have been able to perform ‘miracles’ even if he lived to 100 years of age. However, he was a superior being, like Moses. This is proven, by the way he astonished temple doctors at the age of twelve. Like the very young people now on Earth, who are called geniuses because they seem to have a calculation in their heads, Jesus was a human being inhabited by a highly evolved Astral body. And yet, even if he had studied in the very advanced schools on Earth, amongst the Nagas, for example, he never could have acquired the knowledge to revive the dead or cure the sick.

The only messenger we could send to Earth had to be one of us. The ‘Christ’ who died on the cross in Jerusalem, was called Aarioc. He was brought, by us, to the desert of Judea, having volunteered to change his physical body. Thus, he abandoned his hermaphrodite body, which had lived some considerable time on Thiaoouba, and took on the body of Christ, created for him by our Thaori. By so doing, he maintained totally, the knowledge he possessed on Thiaoouba.’

‘Why couldn’t he have remained in his body and simply reduced it in size, as Latoli and Biastra did, in front of me? Couldn’t he have stayed long enough in a ‘shrunken’ body?’

‘There was another problem, Michel, he had to resemble a human being from Earth in all respects, and, since we are hermaphrodites, we couldn’t risk the Hebrews noticing that this messenger from God was half female.

‘We can regenerate a body at will, which is why you have seen so few children on Thiaoouba. We can also create a body, as I have just explained, and we can reduce it in size...

‘Jesus, who came from Thiaoouba, was taken by us into the desert, and you know what followed. He knew that he would come up against numerous difficulties and that he was going to be crucified. He knew all, for he had ‘previewed’ his life with us, but he had done so as an Astral body in a physical body...

'The visions, I repeat, seen by Astral bodies in physical bodies are not erased in the way that visions seen by Astral bodies with the Higher-selves are. Thus, he knew all and knew exactly what to do. Of course, he had the power to resuscitate the dead, cure the blind and the deaf, and, when he was crucified and dead, we were there to take him away and revive him. We rolled the stone from the tomb, quickly took him to our spacecraft which was positioned nearby and, there, revived him. At the right moment, he appeared again, thereby providing his immortality, showing that there was, indeed, life after death, and regenerating hope among the people by persuading them that they did belong to the Creator and that each of us possesses a spark of His divinity.'...

Buddha, an Earthling, who acquired his understanding through his own study, did not say, as your fellow men do: 'I believe', but rather, 'I know'. Faith is never perfect but knowledge is. When you return to Earth and tell your story, the first thing you will be asked is for evidence. If we were to give you, for example, a piece of metal which doesn't exist on Earth, there would always be one, among the experts who analyse it, who would insist that you prove the metal was not created by a clever alchemist of your acquaintance –or some such thing.'...

You know nothing of Nature on your planet, Michel, and, as soon as something occurs which is a little beyond your understanding, everyone claims it is magic. Levitation = magic; invisibility = magic - and yet we are only applying natural laws. Rather, you should say, levitation = knowledge and invisibility = knowledge.

'So, Christ was sent to Earth to preach love and spirituality. He had to contend with people who were not highly evolved, speaking to them in parables. When he tipped over the merchants' tables at the temple, angry for the first and only time, he was making a statement against money.

'His mission was to impart a message of love and goodness –'love one another' and also to enlighten the people in regard to the reincarnation of astral bodies and immortality.'²⁶

Special activities of the Masters in Nature of Thiaoouba involve mental feats of direct manifestation for complex spiritual purposes that are virtually incomprehensible for the average human being of Earth. The perfection of knowledge achieved by the Thaori –High Council of the Golden Planet– is enabled by complete awareness of the timeless design of Creation. Their decisions take all significant factors into careful consideration, through psychic remote viewing of all related past and future events with total clarity.

The great task of supervision of the various inhabited worlds in our galaxy is voluntarily divided between the wise inhabitants of 3 'golden planets' that represent the ultimate level of perfection among all planets in our galaxy. Earth represents one of the 'Planets of Sorrow' that require special supervision, among the $\frac{1}{3}$ of planetary systems in our galaxy that fall under the critical oversight of the Thiaoouban Masters in Nature.

The Divine spiritual acts of the Essene Master were given on Earth as a special demonstration of the full potential of the spirit of each man, leaving unmistakable evidence of His radiance at the moment of the resurrection in the form of indelible scorch-marks. The complex set of optical qualities observed in the image composed of scorch-marks on the Burial Shroud of Christ are not reproducible by any means available to modern scientists on Earth. However, several aspects of the Shroud's scorch-marks were partly reproduced by the scorched bedsheet of UFO contactee Urandir Oliveira in the town of Rochedo, Brazil.²⁷

While the Oliveira bedsheet samples do not record the detailed image of a man, forensic examination revealed an exposure to a high intensity flash of infrared and ultraviolet light generated by an HHO plasma levitation beam used to extract Urandir from his bedroom –directly through the ceiling of the house. These facts suggest the photon burst recorded on the Shroud of Christ emanated from within His body, near death.

Complete knowledge of the 9-fold constitution of the physical body enables the transcendent acts and final resurrection of the Essene Master, as related by Thao on the subject of Thiaoouban gender expression:

'Thao, is there a reason for you all being hermaphrodites?'

'Yes, and it is important, Michel. I was surprised you didn't ask that question sooner. You see, as we exist on a superior planet, all we have that is material, is also superior, as you have seen for yourself. Our various bodies, including the physical body, must also be superior, and in this domain, we have progressed as far as it is possible to progress. We can regenerate our bodies, prevent them from dying, resuscitate them and even, sometimes, create them. But in a physical body, there are other bodies, such as the astral –indeed, there are nine altogether... Evidently, the Creator has taken special care to place, within us, much more than a physical body. Sometimes on your planet, such special things are referred to as 'divine sparks' –being an appropriate comparison.'²⁸

Complex explanations shared by Thao concerning the creative capabilities of the Masters of Thiaoouba confirmed 'Divine sparks' as a valid concept, directly referencing the description of HHO plasma discharges above the head of Christ given in The Essene Gospel of Peace: "and sparks flew upward from his hair". Another crucial lesson given by the Thiaooubans concerns disturbance of the Astral body by noise pollution:

'As you have heard, in the beginning there was the Spirit alone and he created, by his immense force, all that exists materially. He created the planets, the suns, plants, animals, with one goal in mind: to satisfy his spiritual need. This is quite logical since he is purely spirit. Already I see you are wondering why the need to create material things in order to attain spiritual fulfillment. I offer this, by way of explanation: the Creator sought spiritual experiences through a material world. I see you still have difficulty following –but you are making progress.

'In order to have these experiences, he wanted to embody a tiny part of his Spirit in a physical entity. To do this, he called on the Fourth force –the force which Thao has not yet spoken of and which concerns only spirituality. In this domain, Universal Law also applies.

'You most certainly know that the pattern of the Universe dictates that nine planets revolve around their sun. It is also the case that these suns revolve around a bigger sun, which is the nucleus for nine such suns, and their nine planets. So it continues, right to the centre of the Universe from where the explosion referred to... as the 'Big Bang' originated.

'Needless to say, certain accidents occur and sometimes a planet will disappear in a solar system, or perhaps enter it, but later in time, the solar system will revert and base its structure again on the number nine.

'The Fourth force had a very important role to play: it had to bring to fruition all that the Spirit had imagined. It 'inserted' thus, an infinitesimal part of the Spirit in the human body. This comprises what you could call the Astral body, which forms one ninth of the essential human being and consists of one ninth of a 'Higher-self', which is sometimes called 'overself'. The Higher-self of man is, in other words, an entity which sends one ninth of itself into a human body, becoming the person's Astral being. Other physical bodies are inhabited, similarly, by other ninths of the same Higher-self and yet each part remains integral to the central entity.

'Further, the Higher-self is a ninth part of a superior Higher-self which, in turn, is a ninth part of a more superior Higher-self. The process continues as far back as the source, and allows the enormous filtration of spiritual experience required by the Spirit.

'You must not think that the Higher-self of the first category is insignificant in comparison with the others. It functions at a lower level, but is nevertheless extremely powerful and important. It is capable of curing illness and even resuscitating the dead. There are many instances of people, declared clinically dead, who are brought back to life in the hands of doctors who had abandoned all hope for them.

What generally happens in these cases, is that the person's Astral body meets with the Higher-self. This portion of the Higher-self has left the physical body during the period of 'death'. It perceives its physical body below, and the doctors trying to resuscitate it; it can also perceive loved ones who mourn for it. In his present state, the Astral body, the person will feel perfectly well –even blissful. Usually he abandons his physical body, frequently the source of much suffering, to find himself catapulted down a 'psychic canal', at the end of which is a wondrous light and beyond, a state of bliss.

'If before passing through this canal into the blissful light which is his Higher- self he has the least will not to die –not on his own account but for the sake of those who need him, young children for example, he will ask to return. In certain cases it will be permitted.

'You are in constant communication with your Higher-self by means of your cerebral canal. Acting as a transmitting and receiving post, it conducts special vibrations directly between your Astral body and your Higher-self. Your Higher- self monitors you continually, by day and by night and can intervene to save you from an accident...

'It isn't only the cerebral canal which is able to conduct messages between the Higher-self and the Astral body. Another channel exists sometimes in dreams –or, I should even say, in sleep. At certain times during sleep, your Higher-self is able to call your Astral body to itself and, either communicate instructions or ideas, or to regenerate it in some way, replenishing its spiritual strength or enlightening it in regard to solutions to important problems. For this reason, it is essential your sleep is undisturbed by intrusive noise or by nightmares resulting from harmful impressions received during the day. Perhaps you will better understand the importance of your old French saying: 'Night brings counsel'.

'The physical body in which you exist at the moment is already very complex, but still, it is nothing compared with the complexity of the process of evolution which occurs with Astral bodies and Higher-selves... Your Astral body, which inhabits every normal human being, transfers to its Higher-self all the sensations that are experienced during a lifetime in a physical body. These sensations pass through the immense 'filter' of nine Higher-selves before arriving in the etheric 'ocean' that surrounds the Spirit. If these sensations are based essentially on materialism, the Higher-selves have enormous trouble filtering them, just as a water filter clogs quicker if it filters dirty water than if the water was already clear.

'If, through the numerous experiences you have in your life, you ensure your Astral body benefits in a spiritual sense, it will acquire more and more spiritual understanding. In time, which can vary from 500 to even 15,000 of your Earth years, your Higher-self will have nothing more to filter. This part of itself, embodied in the Astral being of Michel Desmarquet, will be so spiritually advanced, it will have arrived at the next stage where it will have to contend directly with the more superior Higher-self.

'We can compare this process with a nine-stage filter, intended to rid the water passing through, of nine elements. At the end of stage one in the process, one will have been completely eliminated, with eight remaining. Of course, to make this information easier to digest, I am making enormous use of imagery...

'This Astral body then, will have completed its cycle with the Higher-self of the first category and will then detach itself from Higher-self number one to rejoin the Higher-self of the second category; the entire process will be repeated. By the same token, the Astral body will be sufficiently spiritually advanced to pass to a planet of the next category, as well... In his wisdom, The Spirit, by means of the Fourth force, provided for nine categories of planets.

'At present, you are on the planet Thiaoouba which is in the ninth category; that is, at the top of the scale. Earth is a planet of the first category and therefore at the bottom of the scale. What does this mean? The planet Earth could be likened to a kindergarten with the emphasis on teaching basic social values.

'A planet of the second category would then correspond with a primary school where further values are taught –in both schools, adult guidance is imperative. The third category would comprise secondary schools where a foundation of values allows exploration beyond. Next, you would go to university, where you are treated as an adult, for you would not only have attained a certain amount of knowledge, but you would also start to accept civic responsibility.

'This is the type of progress occurring with the nine categories of planets. The more spiritually advanced you are, the more you will benefit, on a superior planet, by an environment and general way of life which is superior. The very way in which you procure food is much easier, which in turn, simplifies the process of organising your way of life; the consequence is more effective spiritual development.

'On the higher planets, Nature itself, enters the stage to assist 'the pupil' and, by the time you reach planets of the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth category, not only is your Astral body highly evolved, your physical body has also benefited from your development.

'We know you have already been favourably impressed by what you have seen on our planet. As you see more, you will appreciate that it is what you would call on Earth, 'a paradise'; and yet, compared with true happiness, when you become a pure spirit, it is still nothing... From this planet, it is possible either to remain in a physical body or be reunited with the Great Spirit in the ether.' As these words were uttered, the Aura surrounding the leader shone more brightly than ever and I was surprised to see him almost disappear in a golden mist, only to reappear a second later.

'You have understood that the Astral body is a body which inhabits your physical body recalling and noting all the understanding acquired during the course of its various lives. It can only be enriched spiritually –not materially. The physical body is merely a vehicle which, in most cases we abandon when we die...

'By this, I mean that some of us, including all on our planet, are able to regenerate the cells of our bodies at will. Yes, you have already noticed that most of us seem to be of the same age. We are one of three planets that are the most highly evolved in this galaxy. Some of us can, and do, directly join what we call the great ether. So, on this particular planet, we have arrived at a stage near perfection, both materially and spiritually. But we have our roles to perform, as does every creature existing in the universe; in fact, everything, including a single pebble, has its role.

'Our role, as beings of a superior planet, is to guide –to help with spiritual development and even, sometimes, materially. We are in a position to give material assistance because we are technologically the most advanced people. Indeed, how could a father give spiritual guidance to his child if he were not older, more educated and more skilled in diplomacy than the child?

'If the child should require physical punishment, as unfortunately, is sometimes the case, isn't it important that the parent be physically stronger than the child? Certain adults, who refuse to listen and who are absolutely stubborn, also need to be corrected by physical means.

'You, Michel, come from the planet Earth, which is sometimes called 'The Planet of Sorrows'. Indeed, the name is appropriate, but it is this way for a precise reason –it is intended to provide a learning environment of a quite specific kind. It is not because life there is so difficult that you have to intervene– you cannot lightly go against Nature, destroying rather than conserving what the Creator has put at your disposal; that is, interfering with ecological systems, which have been intricately designed. Certain countries, like Australia, where you are from, are beginning to show great respect for ecology and it is a step in the right direction; but even in that country, what case is made of pollution –both water and air pollution? What is ever done about one of the worst forms of pollution? Noise.²⁹

These brief lessons imparted by Thaora, head of the high council of Thiaoouba, refocus our attention on the everyday influences that undermine our consciousness on a daily basis that we ignore to our own detriment. Advanced spiritual concepts of Master Thaora concerning complex astral functions of the Higher-self were later reinforced and expanded upon during further explanations on the Astral body provided by Master Thao:

'Now we come to another kind of pollution that is of no small concern, though people might readily dismiss it. As the great Thaora told you, noise is one of the most noxious pollutants for it upsets your electrons and unbalances your physical compartment...

'A normal human Astral body contains approximately four billion, trillion electrons [or $4.0 \times 10^{21} = 4\,000\,000\,000\,000\,000\,000\,000$ electrons]. These electrons have a life span of approximately ten billion, trillion of your years [or $10^{22} = 10\,000\,000\,000\,000\,000\,000\,000$ years]. They were created at the moment of creation. Your Astral body contains them and, when you die, nineteen per cent rejoin the electrons of the universe until required by Nature to form a new body or a new tree or animal, and the eighty one per cent rejoin your Higher-self...

'An Astral body is not quite what you would call a pure spirit. On Earth, there is a belief that the spirit is made of nothing. This is false. The Astral body is composed of billions of electrons, exactly marrying your physical shape. Each of these electrons has a 'memory' and each is capable of retaining as much information as is contained in all the books that fill the shelves of an average town library...

'Certain physicists on Earth are now aware of this fact but the public, at large, hasn't been informed of it. Your Astral body transmits and receives messages, by means of these electrons, through the channel of your brain, to, and from your Higher-self. Information is being transmitted without you being aware of it, thanks to a weak electric current from your brain in harmony with your electrons.

'Since it is the Higher-self which sent this Astral body into your physical body, it is in the natural order of things that your Higher-self should receive information from your Astral body. Like all things electronic, the Astral body –tool of the Higher-self– is quite a delicate tool. During your waking hours it is capable of sending messages of extreme urgency to the Higher-self but the Higher-self seeks much more than that.

'So, during sleep, your Astral body leaves your physical body to rejoin the Higher-self, either passing on required information or receiving information or orders. You have an old saying in French that: 'the night brings counsel'. This saying emerged from common experience. Over the course of years, people noticed that, on waking in the mornings, they often had the solutions to their problems. Sometimes this is so and sometimes it isn't. If the 'solution' will be profitable to the Higher-self you can be sure that it will be presented to you –if not, you will wait in vain.

‘Now, those people who, through very advanced and special exercises, are able to detach their astral bodies from their physical bodies, will be able to see a light, silvery-blue thread, such as you saw yourself, linking their physical and astral bodies. Their Astral bodies, likewise, are visible during the time that the separation lasts. It is these same electrons which form your Astral body and which create the visible effect of the thread.

‘I see that you follow what I am saying and that you have grasped my point. Let me finish by explaining the dangers of noise. Noise directly attacks the electrons of your Astral body creating parasites, to use a radio and television term. If you are watching a television screen and notice several white spots, this is an indication that a small ‘parasite’ is at work. Similarly, if someone is operating an electric tool next door to your house, such large parasites will be produced on your screen that the image will distort completely.

‘The same thing occurs with the Astral body, but unfortunately you won’t be aware of it in the same way that you are with a television screen; and, it’s much worse, since noise damages your electrons. And yet people say: ‘Oh, we get used to it.’ Your brain ‘tenses’, so to speak and your psyche initiates self-defense mechanisms, but this is not so for the Astral body; a parasite invades its electrons –which, of course, has disastrous repercussions for your Higher-self.

‘The sounds that reach your ears are clearly very important. A particular piece of music can elevate you to a state of euphoria, while another piece, although very pretty, will have no effect on you or, perhaps, irritate you. Try an experiment: take a piece of soft violin, piano or flute music that you like and play it as loudly as you can. The suffering of your eardrums will not be as great as the discomfort you’ll feel within. Most of your fellow human beings on Earth consider noise pollution to be of negligible concern, but the noise of the exhaust pipe of a motor bike is three to four times worse than the noxious fumes that it discharges. While the fumes affect your throat and your lungs, the noise affects your Astral body.

‘However, no one has ever been able to take a photograph of your Astral body and, so, people don’t concern themselves with it! Since your fellow earthlings like proof, let them consider this: there are people on Earth who are sincere and who claim to have seen ghosts –I don’t refer to charlatans.

‘What they have seen is actually the nineteen per cent of electrons that don’t comprise the Astral body. These electrons detach themselves from the physical body three days after its death. Indeed, as a result of certain effects of static electricity, these electrons can be seen having the same form as the physical body. Sometimes, before being re-utilised by Nature, they are ‘vacant’, but they, too, have memories and return to ‘haunt’ places they knew –places they loved or hated.’³⁰

These comprehensive scientific explanations concerning the invisible spiritual dimension of human beings –as a vast interplanetary psychic network consisting of Astral bodies communing with their Higher-selves residing on various planets– represents the greatest gift of knowledge imparted by the Thiaoouba Masters.

This grand, psychic dissemination of information is accomplished through the nonlinear hierarchy of Astral bodies, distributed on many worlds throughout our Milky Way Galaxy. Psychic transmission of information may account for ‘Divinely inspired’ artistic and scientific accomplishments, explaining why Arabic numerals reflecting angular combinations are identical to those displayed on the consoles of Thiaoouba spacecraft:

‘Thao,’ I said, ‘How is it you use the numerals of Arabic? And when you speak of “kilometres”, are you translating for me, or do you actually use this measure?’

‘No. We count in Kato and Taki. We use the numerals that you recognise as Arabic, for the simple reason that it is our own system –one which we took to Earth.’³¹

Exactly how the system was “taken to Earth” was not explained by Thao. Historical records attribute that numerical format to Muhammad ibn Musa al-Khwarizmi (780-850AD); Persian mathematician, astronomer, astrologer, geographer and scholar of the Baghdad House of Wisdom. Perhaps he was ‘Divinely inspired’.

The cosmic significance of the number nine was also discussed in terms of the structure of incarnations of Astral bodies and their spiritual progression of lifetimes lived within that grand hierarchy of Higher-selves.

Thao also related the significance of the number nine to the completion of successive developmental phases requiring reincarnations of a spirit through different learning environments on an ascending path. Thao defined a 'soukou' (or 'suku') as an Astral body that has lived 81 humanoid lives on various planets:

'Michel, as Thao has already told you, you were chosen by us to visit Thiaoouba, but the essential motive for our choice has not been revealed. It is not only because you have a mind already awakened and open, but also –and principally– because you are one of the rare soukous inhabiting Earth at the present time. A 'soukou' is an Astral body that has lived 81 lives in human physical bodies, and has lived those lives on different planets or different categories. For various reasons, the 'soukous' return to live on inferior planets, like Earth, when they could just as well continue to 'climb the ladder' without ever going backwards.

You know that the number nine is the number of the Universe. You are here in the City of Nine Dokos, founded on Universal Law. Your Astral body has nine times nine lives, which brings you to the end of one of the great cycles... Thao is up to her 216th, but other entities live far fewer. As I said, you have been chosen from among very few 'soukous' living on Earth...' ³²

The Great Thaora explained stellar and planetary patterns also reflect the cosmic number 9, stating "nine planets revolve around their sun. It is also the case that these suns revolve around a bigger sun, which is the nucleus for nine such suns, and their nine planets." This truth remains unrecognized by astronomers today, yet reflects information imparted by trance medium Edgar Cayce concerning the Sun's and our entire Solar System's rotation around the orange giant Arcturus, brightest star in the Bootës constellation (opposite):

Arcturus is a orange-red giant star of spectral and luminosity type K1.5 IIIpe. The star has a mass that may be around 1.5 times Sol's,... at least 24.5 times its diameter... and 113 (visual) to 215 times (with infrared) its luminosity... 53 probable members of a group of old disk stars appear to be moving with Arcturus... ³³

Astronomers on Earth have not yet correlated orbital trajectories for this stellar group in motion with Arcturus, which include our binary Sol system as one of nine solar systems orbiting the orange-red giant star. Scores of psychic readings by trance medium Edgar Cayce clearly indicate that our solar system orbits Arcturus:

And we find the experience of the entity before that, as Uhltd, was from even without the sphere of thine own orb; for the entity came from those centers about which thine own solar system moves –in Arcturus. [Reading 5755-1]

Q: The sixth problem concerns interplanetary and inter-system dwelling, between Earthly lives. It was given through this source that the entity Edgar Cayce, after the experience as Uhltd, went to the system of Arcturus, and then returned to Earth. Does this indicate a usual or an unusual step in soul evolution?

A: As indicated, or as has been indicated in other sources besides this as respecting this very problem –Arcturus is that which may be called the center of this Universe, through which individuals pass and at which period there comes the choice of the individual as to whether it is to return to complete there– that is, in this planetary system, our sun... and its planetary system –or to pass on to others. This was an unusual step, and yet a usual one. [Reading 5749-14]

Not that the sun that is the center of this solar system is all there is. For the entity has attained to that realm even of Arcturus, or that center from which there may be the entrance into other realms of consciousness. And the entity has chosen in itself to return to the Earth for a definite mission. [Reading 2823-1]

For Arcturus is that junction between the spheres of activity as related to cosmic force, and is that about which this particular environ or sphere of activity rotates, or is a relative source of activity. The entity's appearance, then, is as a beginning, with those determining factors to be made. As those influences as first indicated in Atlantis were as a beginning, so Arcturus in the present might be termed as a beginning. [Reading 263-15]

Just before this, we find in the days when the Master came into the Promised Land. This entity one that followed close in the ways of the teachings as set by Him, in the personage of the brother in the flesh, Jude. [See Reading 137-121, on the life of Jude]... We find the Sun and Arcturus, the greater Sun, giving of the strength in mental and spiritual elements toward developing soul attributes toward better forces in Earth's sphere. [Reading 137-4]

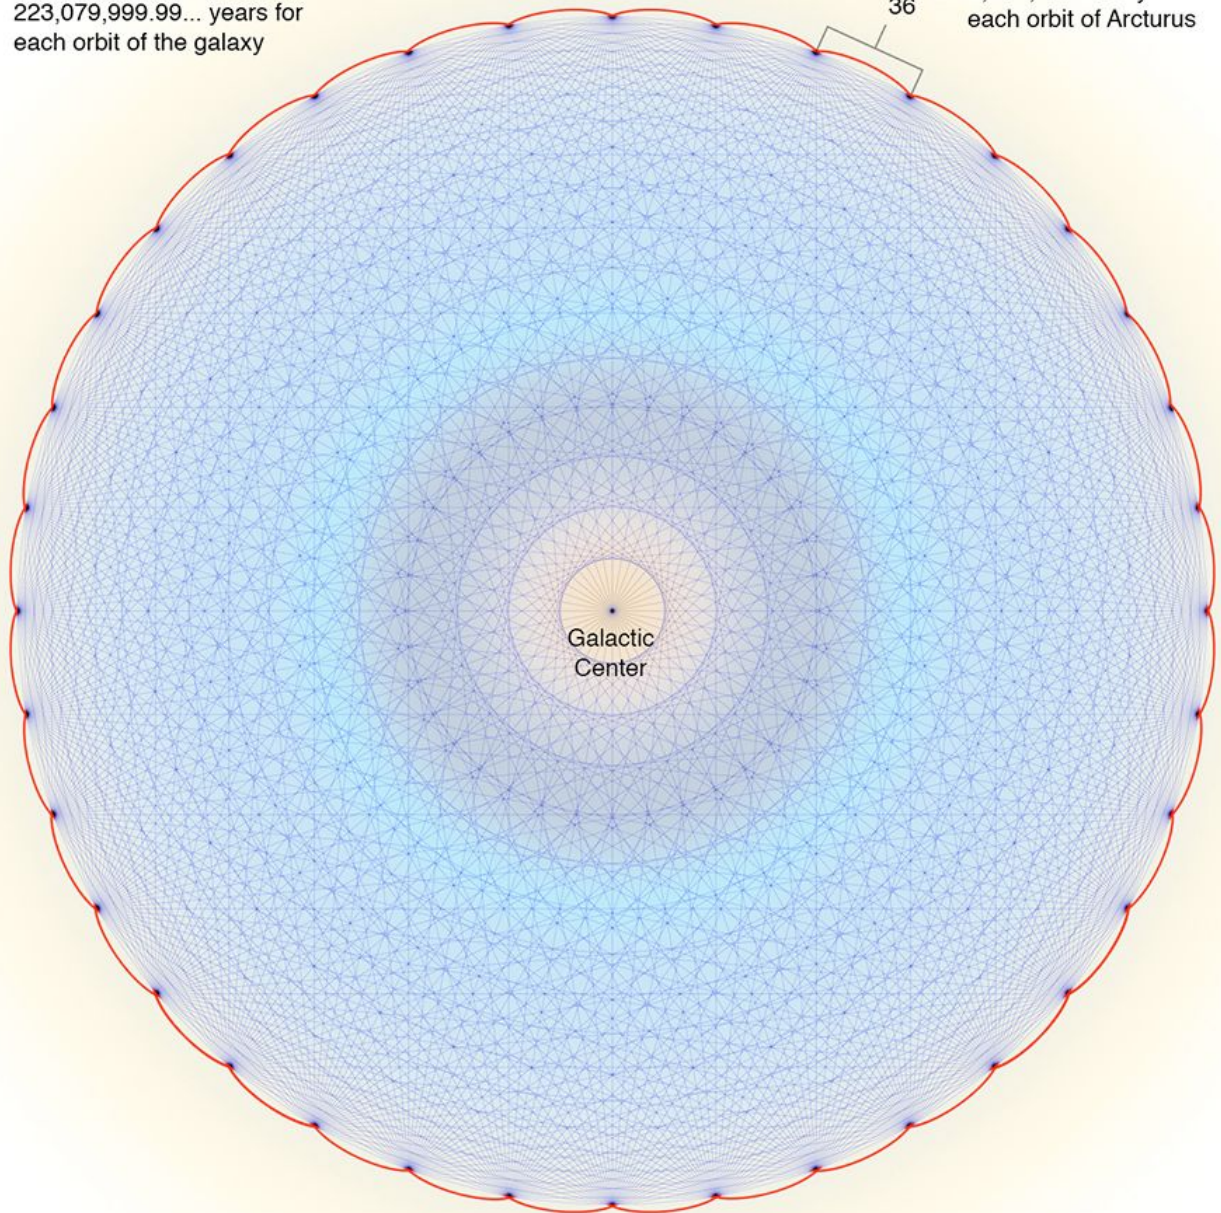

In those experiences of the entity in its dwellings in the hills and the plains of Persia, also in Egypt, the beauties and music of the spheres sang and brought into the experience of the entity its studies of the light by day, the joy of the voices of the night, and the star that led the entity –that source from which and to which it may gain so much of its strength in the present; Arcturus, the wonderful, the beautiful! As the bright and glorious light from same set afire, as it were, its meditations in the plains, so may the illuminations do the same in the lives of those the entity contacts through its gentleness and kindness and service. For he that would gain the understanding pours out, even as upon the desert sand, that refreshing liberation of the spirit of truth that rises to the Throne of grace as sweet incense before the Giver of life and light and understanding, and immortality in Him! [Reading 827-1]

The astrological aspects would vary considerably from that outlined from the position of the planets at the time of birth, or from the causes of the influences that are active in the earth. For, these vary... –because of the sojourn of the entity in the environs to which the entity merited or chose its activity from an earthly sojourn. For, as long as an entity is within the confines of that termed the Earth's and the sons of the earth's solar system, the developments are within the sojourns of the entity from sphere to sphere; and when completed it begins –throughout the music of the spheres with Arcturus, Polaris, and through those sojourns in the outer sphere. [Reading 441-1]

Sol System Galactic Orbit

6,196,666.66... x 36 =
223,079,999.99... years for each orbit of the galaxy

$\frac{1}{36}$ or 6,196,666.66... years for each orbit of Arcturus

Cayce's statements on the motion of our solar system about the spiritual and gravitational axis of Arcturus informs the 36-fold 'florette' patterning of Sol's orbit of the Galactic Center (in red, above, opposite):

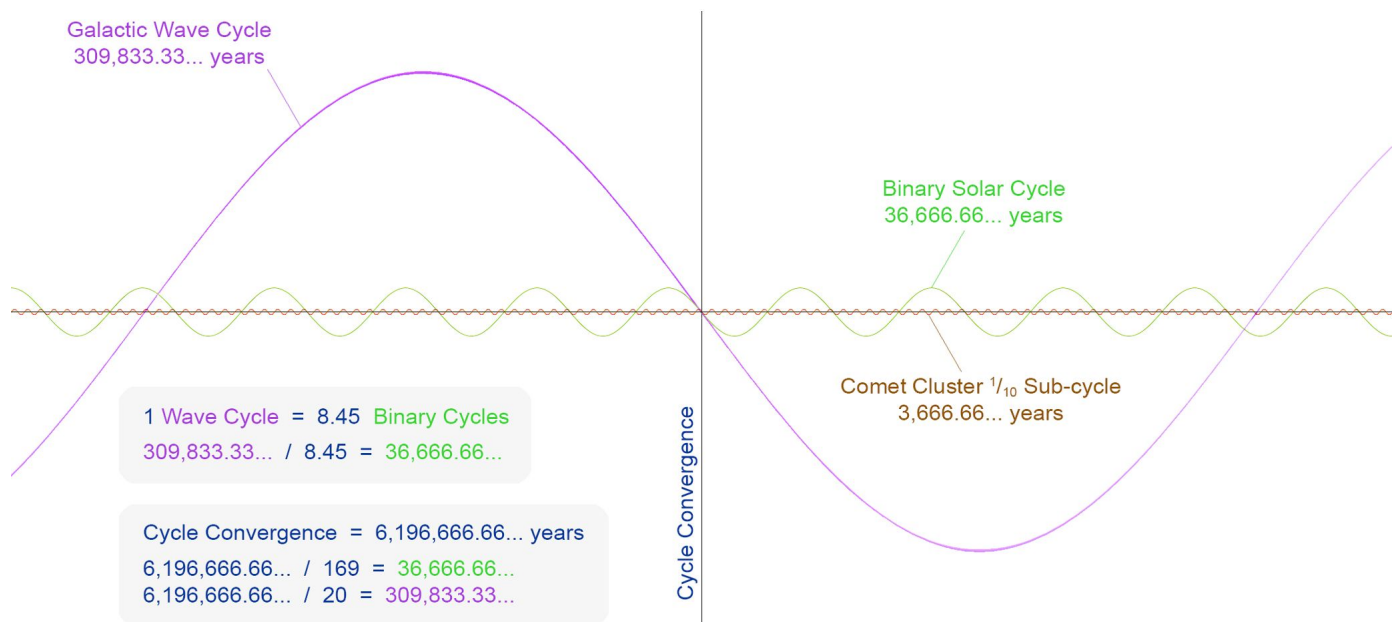

The speed of the solar system due to the galactic rotation is about 220 km/s. The disk of stars in the Milky Way is about 100,000 light years across and the sun is located about 30,000 light years from the galaxy's center. Based on a distance of 30,000 light years and a speed of 220 km/s, the Sun's orbit around the center of the Milky Way once every 225 million years... The Sun has orbited the galaxy, more than 20 times during its 5 billion year lifetime. The motions of the period are studied by measuring the positions of lines in the galaxy spectra.³⁴

This rounded figure of 225 million years given by astronomers for a galactic orbit of the Sol system supports information imparted during the UFO contacts of Albert Coe, in eastern New York state at the very time of Cayce's readings in the 1930s. Coe was told of a grand glaciation cycle related to the Sun's galactic orbital period of 223 million years, which aligns well with a newly recognized 200-million-year Earth tectonic cycle:

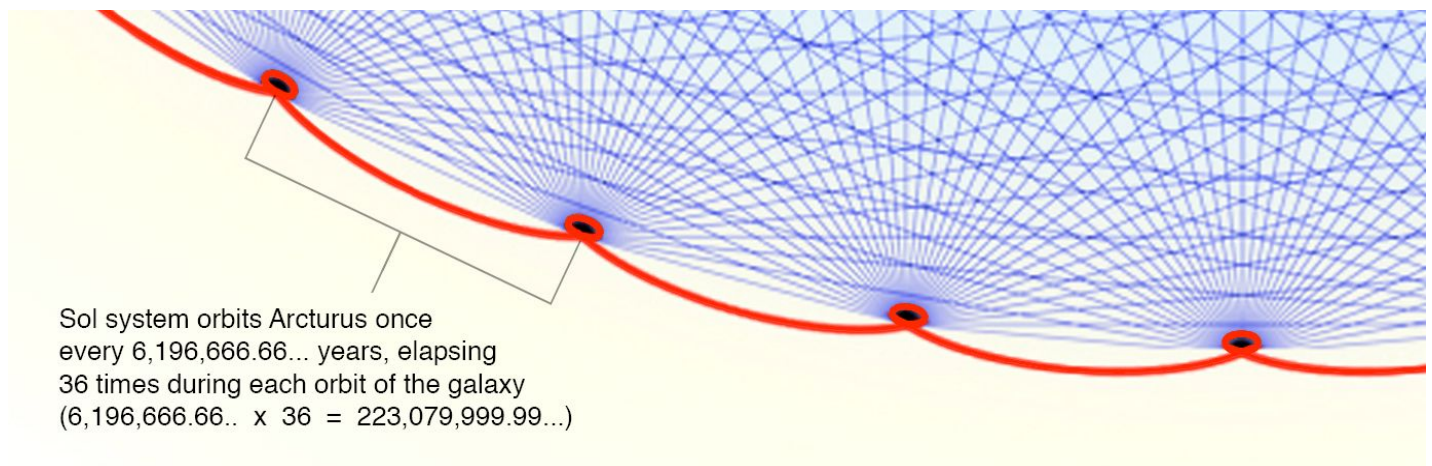

Variations in past geomagnetic field strength are important indicators of variation in deep Earth processes over hundreds of millions of years. Most other geophysical methods only provide a snapshot of the Earth's recent interior, and deep Earth materials are poorly represented in the geological record.

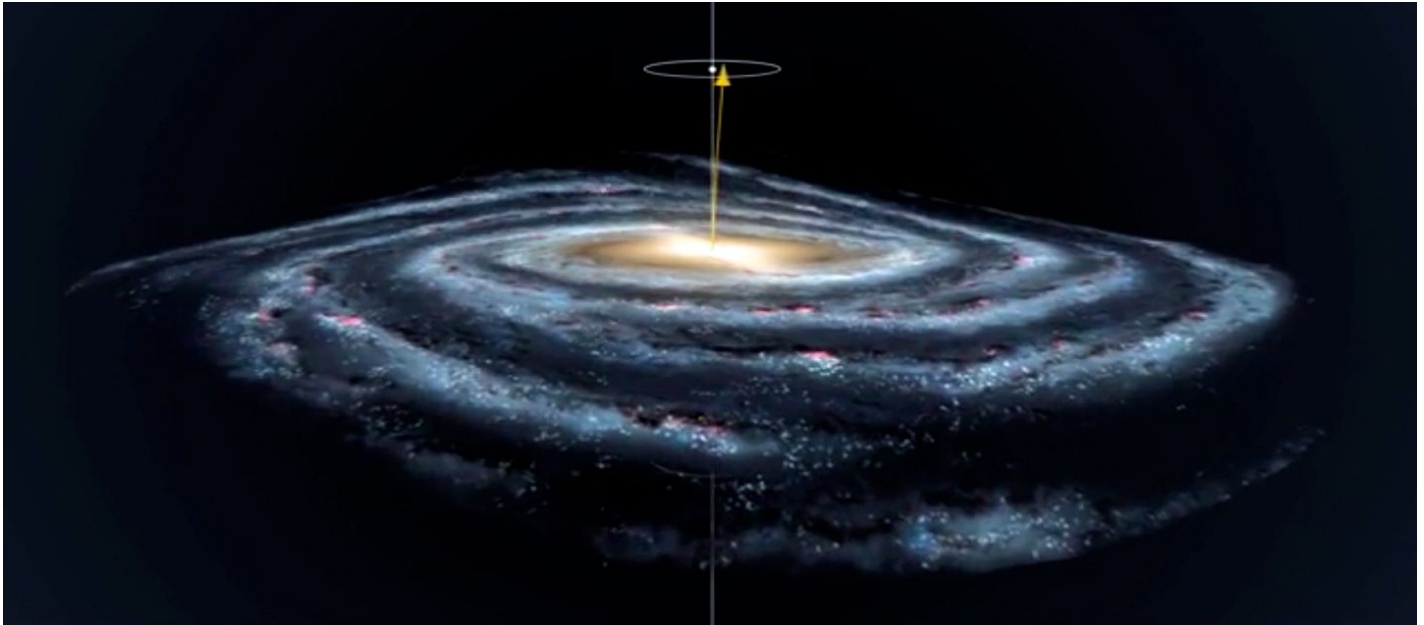

Recent measurements from Scotland (Northern United Kingdom), in addition to the existing datasets, show the field was relatively weak (less than half the strength of the long-term average field) for tens of millions of years between 332 and 416 Ma. The similarities between this and a later period of low field strength provide further evidence for a ~200-My cycle linked to deep Earth processes.³⁵

As data from various sources continues to allow geo-scientists and astronomers to refine their calculations concerning the largest cycles known to significantly affect our planet on a periodic basis relating to galactic rotation. As more advances in this field progress, the accuracy and precision of Grand Cycle astronomical calculations based on the Binary Solar Cycle of 36,666.66... years³⁶ continues to find validation. In fact, the Binary Solar Cycle calculations made by this author have gained 0 attention from scientists, yet remains the only coherent model of our Solar System that accounts for all astronomical factors involved in precession.

Synchronous astronomical information provided by Albert Coe from his ET contacts with the Norca civilization aligns perfectly with astronomical indications from other high sources such as the Edgar Cayce trance readings and the Cassiopaea Transmissions of Laura Knight-Jadczyk, which together provide all the necessary clues for making these high-precision Grand Cycle determinations. When integrated properly –considering all pertinent factors involved– data from these omniscient sources implicates our next important task of defining the motion of our Solar System –among several others– in orbit of Arcturus.

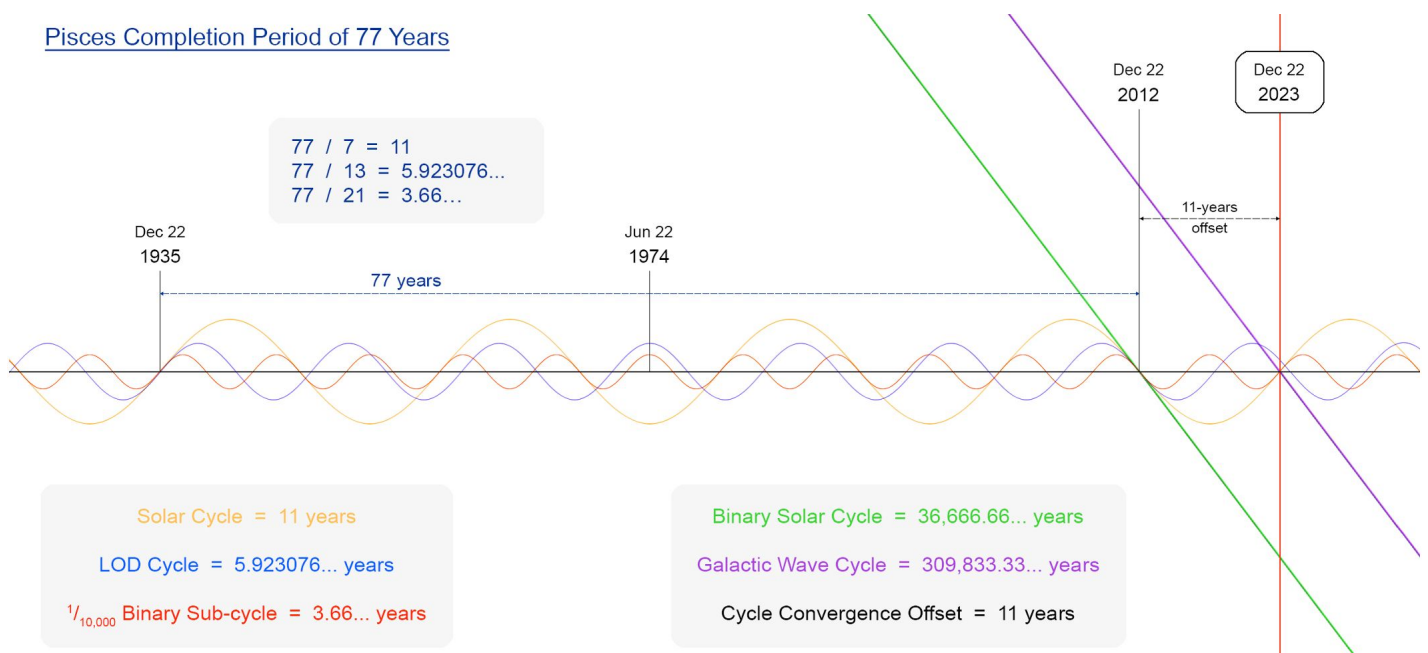

In 2020, an investigation announced the detection of the precession of the warp of the Milky Way disc, which means that the deformation in this outer region is not static, but that just like a spinning top the orientation of its axis is itself rotating with time. Furthermore, these researchers found that it was quicker than the theories predicted, a cycle every 600-700 million years, some three times the time it takes the Sun to travel once round the centre of the Galaxy.³⁷

A precise calculation of the Galactic Precessional Cycle provides an exact figure of 669,239,999.99... years for each complete 'wobble' of the Milky Way Galaxy (223,079,999.99... x 3 = 669,239,999.99...). These high-precision figures represent a major step forward for astronomy on Earth, enabling accurate modeling of astronomical cycles that have been catastrophically embedded in the geological bedrock strata of our planet.

The great significance of these findings will be verified for all to see in the forthcoming events of the Red Dawn, as prophesied long ago by many high-level sources. This coming time requires each one of us to engage in a direct face-to-face meeting with the Higher-self. Thao's lessons contained many subtle hints relating to open ET contacts on Earth involving telepathic interaction after the start of a new Grand Cycle.

Pisces Completion Period of 77 Years

Major periodic surges in the planetary resonance of Earth result from cycling galactic pulsations that revitalize life in all its myriad forms. We are rapidly approaching a great dispensation of energy involving a great cosmic juncture that our planet –and every living creature within its many folds– can benefit from in many significant ways. A new form of inner communication will soon become possible for many individuals:

‘If, through the numerous experiences you have in your life, you ensure your Astral body benefits in a spiritual sense, ... [when Earth ascends, your Astral body] will have arrived at the next stage where it will have to contend directly with the more superior Higher-self.’

The immense implications of this statement from Thao were only partly conceived by Michel, and deserve our serious consideration in the broader context of psychic information given through the Edgar Cayce readings and the Cassiopaea transmissions of Laura Knight-Jadczyk. These sources discuss the ascension of Earth engendering a great enhancement of inner, psychic communications –as well as a re-establishing of direct physical interactions with sentient humanoids from other worlds that represent our Higher-selves.

The many complex spiritual explanations provided by Thao and the other Thiaoouban Masters in Nature were given to inspire our learning process; to lead us forward on the path of knowledge. Through Michel Desmarquet we have been shown the ultimate truth pertaining to the final resting place of the body of Christ after His crucifixion and resurrection from the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea. A guided tour by Thao and her companions presented Michel with the Essene Master’s body levitating in a 4th density state of preservation:

With no obstacles to negotiate, we gradually picked up speed and I was even able to fly in formation beside my companions without straying too often.

It was so exhilarating –I could never have imagined such a sensation. Because the equipment created a kind of force field around me, making me weightless, there was no sensation of being suspended, as there is in a balloon; nor was there the sensation of being carried by wings. Further, being completely surrounded by the force field, I couldn’t even feel wind whipping at my face.

I had the impression of being an integral part of the environment, and the more I exercised control over the apparatus, the more pleasure I gained from this new means of locomotion. I wanted to test my control and, so, descended slightly, only to climb again. This I did several times, choosing to gain or lose altitude on the others. Finally, I moved nearer to Thao and telepathically communicated my euphoria, letting her in on my intention of skimming the ocean that stretched, below us, as far as the eye could see. She agreed and the whole group followed me at water level.

It was absolutely fantastic to be able to skim over the crests of the waves at a speed of approximately 100 kilometres per hour, as if we were all powerful gods, conquerors of gravity. From time to time, silvery flashes indicated that we were flying over schools of fish.

In my excitement, I was not aware of time, but it seemed that the voyage lasted 3 karses. No matter which way I turned my head, I saw only the line of the horizon. Then, suddenly, Thao telepathised: ‘Look over there, Michel.’ Far away, on the surface of the water, I was able to make out a speck that grew rapidly to reveal itself as a mountainous island of reasonable size.

We could soon make out enormous rocks, bluish-black in colour, which plunged sharply into the blue-green waters of the ocean. By increasing altitude, we gained a bird’s-eye view of the whole island. There was no beach to be seen, the enormous black rocks prohibiting access from the ocean. The waves crashing into the base of their imposing masses, were iridescent under the sun’s rays, reflecting shimmering colours which contrasted with the uniform black of the basalt.

Half-way up the slopes which faced inland, grew forests of gigantic trees, their foliage strangely dark-blue and gold; their trunks blood-red. These trees covered steep inclines right to the edge of an emerald-green lake. In places, the surface of the lake was obscured by wisps of golden mist. In the middle of the lake, as though floating on the water, we could make out an enormous doko, its point upwards. I later learned its diameter was about 560 metres.

Its exceptional size was not its only peculiarity however; its colour was another. All the dokos I had seen to date on Thiaoouba were of a whitish colour –even those at the City of the Nine Dokos. This one, though, seemed to be made of pure gold. There it was, shining in the sun and, in spite of its very ordinary egg shape, its colour and size rendered it majestic. Something else surprised me greatly: there was no reflection of the doko in the waters of the lake.

My companions led me towards the dome of the gold doko. We flew slowly, at water level and, from this perspective, it was even more impressive. Unlike other dokos, this one had no point of reference to indicate an entrance. I followed Thao and Latoli who soon disappeared inside. The other two were at my side, each having caught hold of me under an arm so that I wouldn't fall into the water, for, in my surprise, I had let go of my Litiolac. I was literally stunned by what I saw. Here is what I discovered inside the doko:

I could see about two hundred people floating in the air with no help from any apparatus. The bodies seemed to be asleep or in deep meditation. The one closest to us floated about 6 m above the water, for inside the doko, there was no floor. The bottom section of the 'egg' was actually in the water. As I have already explained, once inside a doko you can see outside, as though there were nothing between you and the world outside.

So, in this case, I had a panoramic view of the lake, the hills and the forest in the background and, near me in the middle of this 'landscape', floated two hundred or so bodies. It was completely astonishing, as you would expect. My companions were watching me in silence and, unlike other times when my wonder had made them laugh, they remained serious. Looking more closely at the bodies, I began to notice they were generally smaller than my hosts and some had quite extraordinary –and sometimes monstrous– forms.

'What are they doing? Are they meditating?' I whispered to Thao who was at my side.

'Take your Litiolac, Michel. It's hanging on your arm.' I obeyed, and she then answered my questions. 'They are dead. These are corpses.' 'Dead? Since when? Did they all die together? Was there an accident?'

'Some of them have been here for thousands of years and the most recent, I believe, has been here for sixty years. I think (that), in your current state of surprise, you are not going to be able to operate your Litiolac effectively. Latoli and I will guide you.' Each of them took hold of me under an arm and we began to wander among the bodies. Without exception, they were entirely naked.

Among others, I saw a man sitting in the lotus position. His hair was long and of a red-blond colour. He would have been 2 m tall when standing. He had golden skin and his features were remarkably fine for a man –and he was, indeed, a man rather than a hermaphrodite.

A little further away lay a woman, whose skin was coarse like that of a snake, or the bark of a tree. She appeared to be young, although her strange aspect made it difficult to judge her age. Her skin was orange coloured and her short, curly hair was green.

Most surprising though, were her breasts. They were quite large, but each one had two nipples, separated from each other by about 10 cm. She would have been close to 180 cm in height. Her thighs were thin and muscular, and her calves quite short. On each foot were 3 enormous toes, but her hands were exactly like ours.

We passed from one to another, sometimes stopping, sometimes moving on –as one does among wax figures in a museum. The eyes and mouths of all these people were closed, and they all occupied one of two positions –either sitting in the lotus position, or lying on their backs with their arms by their sides.

‘Where do they come from?’, I whispered. ‘Various planets.’

We spent some time before the body of a man, apparently in the prime of his ‘life’. He had bright chestnut hair that was long and curly. His hands and feet were like mine. His skin was of a familiar complexion –that of someone from Earth. In height, he would have been around 180 cm. His face was smooth, with noble features and there was a soft goatee on his chin. I turned to Thao whose eyes were fixed on mine. ‘One would say that he came from Earth’, I said.

‘In one sense he did, but in another, he didn’t. You know him well by having heard him spoken of.’ Intrigued, I examined his face more closely, until, telepathically, Thao said, ‘Look at his hands and feet, as well as his side.’

Thao and Latoli brought me closer to the body and I could clearly see scars on his feet and his wrists, as well as a gash, approximately 20 cm long, in his side. ‘What happened to him?’

‘He was crucified, Michel. This is the body of Christ of whom we spoke this morning.’ Fortunately, my hosts had anticipated my reactions and supported me under the arms, for I am convinced that I’d have been unable to manoeuvre my Litiolac. There I was –staring at the body of Christ, worshiped and spoken of by so many on Earth–the man who had been the subject of so much controversy and so much research during the past 2000 years.

I reached out to touch the body, but was prevented from doing so by my companions, who drew me away.

‘Your name is not Thomas. Why must you touch him? Is there doubt in your mind?’ said Thao. ‘You see, you confirm what I was saying this morning –you seek proof.’

I felt terribly ashamed for having initiated my gesture, and Thao understood my regret. ‘I know, Michel that it was instinctive and I understand it. In any case, you can’t touch these bodies –no one can, apart from one of the 7 Thaori. In fact, it is the Thaori who install these bodies in a state of preservation and levitation, as you see them, and they alone, are capable of doing so.’

‘These are the actual bodies they had during their lives?’

‘Of course.’

‘But how are they preserved? How many of them are there and why?’

‘Do you remember me telling you, when we took you from your planet, that there were questions you would ask to which we would give no answers? I explained then, that you would learn with us all you needed to know, but that certain things would remain a ‘mystery’ because you must not document certain points. The question you have just asked cannot be answered for this very reason. However, I am able to tell you that there are 147 bodies in this doko.’

I knew that it would be futile to inquire further, but as we wandered among the bodies, I asked another burning question: ‘Do you have Moses’ body? And why are they all in levitation in this doko without a solid floor?’

‘We have only the body of Christ from your planet. They are levitated in order to be perfectly preserved, and the properties peculiar to the waters of this lake assist this preservation.’

‘Who are all the others?’

‘They came from various planets where they have each had a very important role to play.’

One of the bodies I remember well. It was about 50 cm high and formed exactly like a being from Earth, except that it was dark yellow and had no eyes. Instead, it had a type of horn in the middle of its forehead. I asked how it was able to see and was told that there were two eyes at the end of the protuberance, multi-faceted like the eyes of a fly. I could see the closed eyelid with several splits. ‘Nature is very strange,’ I murmured.

‘As I said, each body you see here, comes from a different planet, and it is the conditions in which they must live which determines the details of the physical bodies of the inhabitants.’

‘I don’t see anyone resembling Arki.’

‘And neither will you.’ I didn’t know why, but I ‘felt’ that I should not pursue this topic further.

Throughout this macabre visit, I saw bodies resembling North American Red Indians –but they weren’t. I saw others like black Africans, but they weren’t; nor was it the body of a Japanese that I saw floating in the air. As Thao had said, Christ’s was the only body here that came, if one can say so, from Earth.

After an indeterminate time in this extraordinary and fascinating place, my guides led me outside. A lightly perfumed breeze carrying the scent of the forest caressed us and did me much good, for after such a visit, in spite of it being enormously interesting, I was feeling quite drained. Thao, of course, realised as much and said, in a lively voice, ‘Are you ready, Michel? We are going home.’³⁸

Michel Desmarquet’s special guided tour of the Golden Doko of Thiaoouba represents one of the most significant disclosures shared among humanity on Earth; revealing quantum patterns of high spiritual activity only attainable by the Thaori, Highest of the Masters in Nature. Through Michel’s vivid descriptions, we are given a glimpse of the Great Masters’ Divine capability to generate adult humanoid bodies required for planetary intervention missions by direct manifestation of combined mental radiation of the entire Thaori.

The Golden Doko represents a special mausoleum preserving those 147 bodies that have been created through this process when required for preserving planetary systems in peril. These bodies represent 147 special interventions of the kind made by Aarioc, taking on the Earthly human body of Jesinavarah, that were similarly conducted on 146 other planets in our galaxy over the course of hundreds of thousands of years.

Such surprising quantum patterns of activity that have not been previously identified by any author, and yet account for the teachings of various high-level information sources that shine ever brighter under the growing illumination of rapidly unfolding scientific knowledge confirming many details of the ET mission of the Essene Master nicknamed ‘Jesus’, as well as two prior preparatory ET missions to seed Jesinavarah & Jmmanuel.

Certainly, negative activity patterns relating to the cattle mutilation and UFO beam abduction phenomena has become well recognized worldwide as a fundamental dynamic presently controlling Earth humanity’s collective perception of reality, However, covert activities of benevolent ET races are only now becoming comprehensible in light of special lesson sets given through high-level Sources as a mosaic teaching.

Plejaren beamship of Quetzal
E. Meier - August 3, 1981
Auenberg, Switzerland

Advanced teachings of the Thiaoouban Masters concerning the electronic composition of the Astral body and its spiritual purpose involving decisive communications with the Higher-self reveals the invisible cosmic hierarchy comprising the Astral web; linking conscious beings of all inhabited worlds together as one.

Lessons of the Masters bring us to a broadened awareness of our subconscious, inner communications that enable an acceleration of psychic development through the recognition of the great importance of receptivity to our own subtle, internal perceptions mitigated by the Higher-self, which is another way of defining a future lifetime –a future self. My intuition tells me that the ET Tonatha, father of Jesinavarah, is most likely a higher or ‘future’ incarnation of my own Astral body; an inhabitant of a more highly developed planet in our galaxy.

This impression is reinforced by the same pattern presented by the case of the ‘immaculate conception’ and birth of the Prophet Jmmanuel –son of the Plejaren ET Gabriel. Billy Meier affirms that Gabriel has since reincarnated as Quetzal, the Plejaren visitor who interacted with Meier throughout the 1970s and early 80s. During that period of intensive contacts with his Higher-self –the Plejaren Quetzal– Meier was authorized and aided in production of many stunning, high-quality photographs of his single-occupant beamship (above).

Similarly, the Edgar Cayce material identifies the Atlantean period High Priest Ra-Ta as one who was “not begotten of man”. A special Life Reading conducted for Edgar Cayce himself on July 19, 1932 identified his prior incarnation as Ra-Ta to have been a product of ET procreation (paraphrased from Reading 294-147):

There were many people, even nations, that were influenced by the material activities of Ra-Ta. He came into the land of Egypt for a purpose, and was a man of unusual abilities as well as appearance and manners of conduct.

Before entering the Earth, the soul of Ra-Ta looked upon a tribe of people in Arabia and foresaw that they would conquer Egypt; therefore he chose to be born to a daughter of this tribe of Zu, and was not begotten of man. As a child Ra-Ta was rejected by those who ordinarily would have been his companions, just as he might be today, because he had no father nor a real home as other children...

The many concise explanations of the Source given through Edgar Cayce have carefully revealed a covert mode of advanced ET spiritual activity that involves the cooperation of various highly developed individuals concurrently reincarnating on various highly developed planets. Together they participate in special missions actively 'seeding' ET genetics on Earth for advancing our spiritual development and quality of life here.

Master Thao's statements concerning a forthcoming developmental stage where one "must contend directly with the Higher-self" may aptly describe Michel's ET contact with the Thiaooban giants. Perhaps Thao is a distant future incarnation of the Astral body of Michel Desmarquet? Many other pertinent questions arise when fully considering this subject. Where was Aarioc when Michel visited Thiaoouba? The Cassiopaeian dialogs have implicated Master Aarioc is preserved on Thiaoouba, in a 4th-density state of 'soul replication'.

After persistent meditation and contemplation on this subject over the last several years, it has become clear that the 'golden mustard-colored' aura envisioned by Laura Peppard represents my Higher-self; the Astral body of Tonatha, father of Jesinavarah, who has reincarnated as another individual alive today.

Why was the body of Jesinavarah, son of Tonatha and Mary, selected for physical replication by the Thaori for Master Aarioc to utilize during his spiritual mission on Earth, and his final resurrection? The answer now resonates within the framework for Astral communication with the Higher-self, just as explained to Michel on Thiaoouba by Thaora in the City of Nine Dokos. Jesinavarah is the lower self of Master Aarioc. My personal conviction that I am the present reincarnation of Jesinavarah, son of Tonatha, leads me to conclude that Master Aarioc represents the highest Higher-self of my Astral body; a very distant 'future' incarnation.

Quantum patterns of advanced spiritual activity dictate that ET civilizations who visit the Earth do so using individuals who are the Higher-selves of inhabitants on Earth, as Quetzal is the Higher-self of Eduard Meier, who is the Higher-self of Jmmanuel, and so on... By this logic, I too am a messenger of the Thiaoouban mission on Earth like Michel, a suku with special experiences to share from many important previous lifetimes –as Prince Saurid at the Orion Pyramids; as Ajax of Ode in Atlantis; and as Nikola Tesla in New York City. The convergent efforts of many lifetimes appear inextricably linked with the ascension of Earth.
